Northern B.C. Highway Routes Seen From Air

Plane Party Explores Between Alaska And Fort St. James

Hearing at Dawson

FORT ST. JAMES, B.C. (CP)—Three Canadian members of the international commission studying the proposed construction of a British Columbia-Alaska Highway, were engaged today in an aerial survey of routes advocated for the road in the northern part of the province.

Using two planes, J. W. Wardle of Ottawa, L. J. Burpee, Secretary to the Canadian section, and A. Mitchell of Vancouver, left late yesterday, planning to take a week for their exploration. They will rejoin other members of the commission under chairmanship of Hon. Charles Stewart of Ottawa at Dawson, Y.T., next Sunday.

Yesterday the three surveyors met members of the Fort St. James Board of Trade, which suggested the northern route follow the present highway system to German Landing, then over the German Lake-Alkan Lake Road—now under construction—thence north to Two Brothers Lakes near the headwaters of the Stikine River.

There it would connect with a road partially constructed from Dease Lake to the headwaters of the Tuganag River, and go up the west side of Dease Lake to the Yukon boundary.

Board of Trade representatives said that from Two Brothers Lakes to the Yukon boundary a horse can be ridden over the country which is open, and the highest elevation encountered would not be over 3,800 feet.

The information was given by district residents and others who said they had traveled the suggested route both afoot and on horseback. They claimed it would utilize the present highway system, would not deviate more than a few miles from a straight line drawn from Ashcroft to the Yukon and thus would be the cheapest route and serve the largest area of known natural resources of any proposed route.

MUNDAY PARTY REPORTED SAFE

Mountaineering Family, Overdue On Expedition, Near Bella Coola

BELLA COOLA, B.C. (CP)—Fears for the safety of Don Munday, Vancouver mountaineer, and an expedition which attempted to climb nearby Mount Saugstad were ended today when the party was reported returning to Bella Coola.

The expedition, including Munday's wife and their 17-year-old daughter, were expected here this afternoon.

Their safety was reported by Walter Ratcliffe, Bella Coola guide who began a search for the group Friday night after they had been unreported for five days.

Ratcliffe said he believed the expedition had been unable to complete its ascent of Mount Saugstad, a 10,000-foot peak in British Columbia's lower Coast Range which has never been scaled.

The Bella Coola guide was able to return here last night a day ahead of the Munday's because they were slowed down by their heavy packs.

American League All-stars Win Baseball Classic

Defeat National Leaguers 3 to 1 Before 63,000 at New York

Fifth Victory

YANKEE STADIUM, New York (AP)—Jumping on big Bill Lee of Chicago for all their runs in the fourth and fifth innings, the American League all-stars defeated their National League rivals, 3 to 1, in the seventh annual all-star game here today before a crowd of 63,000.

Tommy Bridges of Detroit, who pitched the middle third of the game for the Americans, was credited with the victory, the fifth scored in seven games by the junior circuit. He and young Bob Feller held the Nationals scoreless for the last six innings after they had scored their lone run off Red Ruffing of the Yankees in the third to take a brief lead.

COSTLY ERROR

A walk, singles by Hank Greenberg and George Selkirk and a glaring error by Arky Vaughan, National League shortstop, provided the Americans with two runs in the fourth inning. Joe DiMaggio's looping home run into the left field stands in the fifth closed the scoring.

Nationals outthrew the Americans 7 to 6 with Ed Ernie Lombardi, National League catcher from Cincinnati, collecting two out of four to be the only member of either club to get more than one save.

Outside of DiMaggio's booming home run, the only extra-base smash was a two-bagger by Lonnie Frey, Cincinnati, second sacker for the Nationals.

Big Red Ruffing of the Yankees, and Bill Lee of the Cubs, shared the strikeout honors, each getting four.

The Nationals made their final threat in the sixth, when they filled the bases with one out and chased Bridges from the hill. Feller promptly throttled them, forcing Vaughan to hit into a double play to close the inning. In the last 'ee and two-thirds innings Feller allowed only one blow, a single by Mel Ott to open the National League ninth.

GOODMAN INJURED

Ival Goodman, crack Cincinnati outfielder who started the game in right field for the Nationals, fell heavily on his shoulder when he dived for a hit by George Selkirk in the American's big fourth and was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital for examination. He was feared to have broken a collarbone.

Feller closed the game with a flourish, striking out pinch-hitter Johnny Mize and Stanley Hack in succession. Hack, who took the final pitch of the contest with this bat on his shoulder, argued violently with Umpire George Markkuth for minutes after the game had ended and even after the fans had swarmed on to the field. He didn't like the decision.

Paul Derringer, Cincinnati ace, held the Americans to two harmless singles for the first three innings, and Lou Fette, Boston veteran, allowed them only one blow during the two chapters he worked. Lee, who was beaten twice by the Yankees in the last World Series, had the same sort of luck against them today.

CLEVELAND SLAYER DECLARED SANE

CLEVELAND (AP)—Frank Dolezal, confessed slayer of one of Cleveland's 12 "torso murder" victims, was declared sane by two county psychiatrists after two hours' examination today.

Dolezal, 32-year-old former bricklayer and butcher, was examined by Drs. S. C. Lindsay and K. S. West.

Sheriff Martin O'Donnell said he was convinced Dolezal had disclosed last night the true hiding place of the head of Mrs. Florence Pollio, victim No. 3 in the series of headless dead, and that Dolezal would be asked to sign a new confession.

AROUND WORLD BY AIRLINE IN 3 WEEKS

New York Broker First Man to Make Such Trip in That Time

By DEVON FRANCIS
Associated Press Aviation Editor
PORT WASHINGTON, N.Y.—Three weeks ago Norman Lee, a New York broker, walked into an airline office and plunked $1,800 on the counter and said "I want to go around the world."

He got back today.

It took him just nine hours less than three weeks to circumnavigate the globe by scheduled airline, the first man ever to do it. He made no record in time, but he did make a record in the sparseness of his conversation in describing the trip.

"It was nice," he said.

When Lee stepped from Pan-American Airways' Atlantic Clipper this morning, after a flight from Marseilles, France, by way of Lisbon and Horta, he had traveled 24,694 miles to get back where he started from.

He took a commercial airline to San Francisco at 6:15 p.m. E.D.T., June 20, caught a Pan-American plane there for Hong Kong, flew by Imperial Airways to Bangkok, Royal Dutch Airlines to Athens, Imperial to Marseilles, and Pan-American to New York.

Others have preceded him by air around the world, but they chartered planes for stretches of the trip.

Three Galt Men Drown in Tank

Ontario City Workers Overcome By Gas at Sewage Disposal Plant

GALT, Ont. (CP)—Three city employees were drowned in the septic tank of Galt's sewage disposal plant today when they were overcome by sewer gas.

The men—Harry E. Westwood, sewer inspector; Albert Hatfield and Peter Britton, all long-time employees of the city, had been sent to clean the plant this morning.

The drownings were discovered by William McEllan, public works superintendent, who went to the plant at noon to take the men back to the city, a short distance north of the plant. McEllan and a mechanic called firemen after failing to locate the men. Firemen found the three bodies.

Nearby residents told officials they had seen the men come out of the plant at intervals for air, and each time they had been wearing rubber boots. The fact Westwood did not have on the rubber boots when his body was recovered led investigators to believe his lost his life in an attempt to rescue the other men.

It was believed Westwood was first out of the tank when the job was finished and had changed when he heard cries of help from Hatfield and Britton.

White Wings Take Otto Kahn's Chateau

COLD SPRING HARBOR, N.Y. (AP)—The lavish 441-acre estate where the late Otto H. Kahn, financier, lived and entertained world-famous figures, has become a street cleaners' paradise.

The New York City Department of Sanitation, which bought the estate from Mrs. Kahn recently for $100,000, held "open house" yesterday for 20,000 persons—employees of the department, their wives and children.

A beer license hung in the great ballroom—converted into a cafeteria—where the Duke of Windsor, then Prince of Wales had danced.

In the formal gardens, which reminded the late Georges Clemenceau, France's wartime premier, of Versailles, a motley throng drank beer and ate frankfurters.

Upstairs in the 100-room French chateau, shirt-sleeved men played at rummy.

"It'll be a nice place if they keep it clean," said one sanitation employee professionally. The estate has been renamed "Sanita Lodge."

Excess Reserves Must Pay Taxes To B.C. Treasury

Government Launches Drive to Make Closely Held Companies Pay

Fair Sum at Stake

Collections by the provincial treasury of surtax on undistributed company profits may run to a fairly substantial sum, although the levy affects comparatively few companies, it was learned today.

While the income tax department, as is customary in taxation matters, declines to give any details of its assessments, it is understood several collections have already been made. Notices have been sent to other firms that are considered to be carrying excessive reserves.

Some companies have protested the assessment, claiming they did not understand the levy would apply to them, but unless they can show their reserves are not unreasonable they are given the option of either dividing them up among shareholders or paying the surtax of 15 per cent.

Notices have been sent to a number of firms stating that the treasury considers their reserves unreasonable. Under the act they are given 30 days in which to distribute their excess profits or to explain the reason for their large reserves.

The drive against undistributed profits is regarded by the treasury as equalizing the imposition of the surtax on companies. Large public companies, it was explained, usually have many shareholders and are forced to distribute most of their profits as dividends. These funds are then liable to ordinary income tax or to surtax if they are over a stated amount. But a closely held company, for the purpose of escaping the surtax, may withhold a considerable portion of its profits in reserves and thus escape the tax. The amendment of last session gives the treasury power to either tax the excess reserves or else force the company to distribute them as dividends.

The levy, as at present being applied, covers reserves that have been built up since 1932, and for that reason may amount to a fairly large sum this year if the excess profits are not distributed by the companies concerned. But the imposition of the levy, the treasury believes, will have the effect of establishing a reasonable level at which reserves should be carried and the revenue may not be so great in future years.

Neutrality Decision Of United States Delayed

Next Session, Says Senate Committee; Roosevelt Wants Arms Embargo Repealed

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States Secretary of State Hull announced today shortly after a Senate committee had voted for postponement of neutrality legislation until next session, that in the interest of "peace and security" the administration would continue to urge adoption of its program.

Mr. Hull's statement was made after he had conferred with President Roosevelt.

It followed by about two hours a 12 to 11 vote of the Senate foreign relations committee in favor of giving no further consideration to revision of the neutrality law at this session.

Disclosure of the administration's stand indicated to many that President Roosevelt had no intention of permitting the committee's decision to stand in the way of new legislation before adjournment if he can swing a majority of the Senate to his view.

This would mean a possibly bitter fight in the Senate over whether to force the House-approved Bloom bill out of the committee and to the Senate floor, where administration leaders claim they can obtain enough votes for repeal of the arms embargo provision of the present law.

Mr. Hull's face was grim as he read his statement.

He reiterated the six points of the administration program thus:

"1. To prohibit American ships, irrespective of what they may be carrying, from entering combat areas."

"2. To restrict travel by American citizens in combat areas."

Vera Simpson, 17, had a foot injured when struck by a parked car driven on the sidewalk after another vehicle had hit it. The driver of the second vehicle did not stop.

A short time later a man who gave his name as Sidney Williamson was arrested and charged with driving to the common danger.

Great British Plane Squadrons Fly Over France

Bombers Totalling Nearly 200 Seen Over South and 52 at Paris

British to See French

BORDEAUX, France (CP-Havas)—A fleet of big British bombers flew low over this city this morning and again this afternoon.

NONSTOP JOURNEY

LONDON (CP)—Twelve bomber squadrons of the Royal Air Force took off today for a nonstop training flight, to southwestern France and return. The force numbers between 150 and 200 planes. A French squadron will reciprocate with a flight over Britain.

The flights were said to be the beginnings of a policy agreed to by the British and French governments to permit training activities over their respective territories by bombers of both aerial fleets.

Taking off from airbases in the centre and east of England, the bombers on today's flight divided into two groups to follow different routes.

More than 100 heavy bombers, including Hampdens and Wellingtons, were to cover 1,200 miles in a round-trip nonstop flight to Bordeaux, passing over Le Havre, Le Mans, Saumur and Caen.

Medium-sized bombers, including Fairey Battle and Blenheim planes, took a triangular course turning on Orleans and Le Mans.

All planes with full military loads and normal crews of from three to five men had instructions to fly at 6,000 feet, going down to 3,000 feet over cities. The centre flight was arranged to take five hours.

SQUADRONS AT PARIS

At the same time 52 Royal Air Force planes representing the fastest and newest types, and a number of craft which will act as reserves in case of accidents, were in Paris to participate with French craft in the Bastille Day aerial show on Friday.

A number of British bombers participated in an aerial meet at Evre, Belgium, yesterday.

BIGGEST ON RECORD

PARIS (AP)—The War Ministry announced today that British defence leaders would come to Paris to review the July 14 parade, which officers said would be the greatest military display France ever has staged on her national holiday. This July 14 will be the 150th anniversary of the fall of the Bastille.

It was announced that Leslie Hore-Belisha, War Secretary; Admiral Sir Dudley Pound, commander-in-chief of the Mediterranean fleet, and Air Chief Marshal Sir Cyril Newall had accepted Premier Edouard Daladier's invitation to come to Paris.

LONDON SILVER GAINS SLIGHTLY

Price Up .66 Cents While Traders Watch Washington

LONDON (AP)—The price of silver advanced fractionally today over yesterday's eight-year low with the quotation for spot delivery increased the equivalent of .66 of a cent an ounce to about 34.5 cents.

Traders were uncertain as to whether yesterday's cut to 35 cents an ounce by the United States treasury could be regarded as fairly permanent or merely a brief pause in a downward readjustment.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States treasury kept its foreign silver purchasing price today at 35 cents an ounce.

The 35-cent price was set yesterday. It was the first price since a series of cuts had brought the level down from 43 cents that was sufficiently higher than the London price to make it profitable to ship the metal across the Atlantic.

Death Investigated

DEAL, Eng. (CP)—Police today investigated the death of Mrs. Margaret Jackson, 30, of the Kent village of Sholden.

The woman, known locally for her beauty, was found dead by her husband in a bedroom of their home. There were several wounds on the wrists and head, and part of the clothing had been torn away.

LONDON (CP)—Twenty-two unemployed men were arrested today when they refused to leave Euston station, to which they had marched with some 30 others to ask the station master for work.

Masked Thugs Rob Vancouver Bank of $2,500

Two Armed Outlaws Force 2 Staff Members To Lie On Floor

California Car Stolen

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two masked and armed men held up the Dominion Bank of Canada branch at the corner of Robson and Hornby Streets today and escaped with a sum estimated at between $2,000 and $3,000.

Only two employees, Stan Thorn and John Dunfield, were in the bank when the two bandits entered. They were ordered to "stick 'em up."

While one of the men ordered the staff members to lie on the floor, the other stepped into the teller's cage and scooped up money. As he started to leave the cage, the second bandit told him: "Go back and get the gun out of the cage."

The hold-up was carried out so swiftly and methodically that passersby and people in neighboring stores were unaware of what was happening.

Shortly afterwards a California automobile was reported to have been stolen from its parking place outside the old Vancouver Hotel not far from the bank.

The bank employees described the bandits as similar in appearance and about 26 years old. One wore dark glasses.

It was the third hold-up of the branch in the last seven years.

McNUTT NAMED U.S. SECURITY HEAD

Philippines Commissioner Nominated By Roosevelt For New Office

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt nominated Paul V. McNutt today to be the United States federal security administrator.

McNutt, who now is United States High Commissioner to the Philippines, has indicated he will retain his present post for several weeks in order to clear up details.

The nomination, if confirmed by the Senate, will bring into the administration the Democrat whose candidacy for the presidency in 1940 has been openly advocated by his friends. Whether President Roosevelt is giving him a boost toward the Democratic nomination for President, or whether the President is merely providing him a chance to show what he can do, is an argued point.

Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, who recently declined consideration as a vice-presidential candidate, said flatly the object was "to build up McNutt for 1940."

McNutt, former Governor of Indiana, will head one of three new agencies created under a plan for reorganization of the government. It will give him control over the Civil Security Board, Civilian Conservation Corps, National Youth Administration, Public Health Service and various other agencies.

SEEK TO FINANCE OLD AGE PENSIONS

North Dakotans Vote On Measures To Pay For $40-a-month Plan

FARGO, N.D. (AP)—North Dakotans voted today in a special election on four measures proposed by former Governor William Langer to help pay for the $40 minimum old age pension sponsored by Langer and endorsed at the general election last fall.

Because of a lack of funds, the state has been operating under the old plan of $30 maximum old age pensions.

The measures include a proposal for a gross income tax, a system of municipal liquor stores and a moratorium on highway construction for two years, the proceeds to go for old age pensions, relief and into the general revenue funds of the state and counties.

The fourth proposal, a referendum on an act passed at the last session of the legislature abolishing the office of the grain storage commissioner, on being signed by more than 30,000 voters forced Democratic Governor John Moses to call the special election and brought the three measures also to the ballot.

BENES PLEADS FOR SMALL NATIONS

Urges Big Democracies Support Them; He Ends His Visit to U.S.

CHICAGO (AP)—Dr. Eduard Benes, former President of Czechoslovakia, said today he was leaving for Europe's "dark, troubled skies," certain democracy was secure in one country—the United States.

This, he said, was due largely to America's press, which he described as "the best in the world—the most free, most informed and very objective."

Dr. Benes, accompanied by Mrs. Benes and his nephew, Bohus Benes, will sail tomorrow for London after a five-months' visit in the United States, during which he lectured at the University of Chicago and fulfilled numerous speaking engagements throughout the nation.

In an address last night he said he believed a new and terrible war would develop if the big democracies should abandon any more small nations.

Such abandonment would be madness, he said. "It would only mean the preparation of a new and terrible war and it would be an incredible lack of responsibility if the European statesmen did not understand this."

He emphasized he did not make a flat prediction of war, and added:

"I do not know if war will come or not. But democracy and authoritarianism cannot live together."

Bata Factory Opposed

JONQUIERE, Que. (CP)—Directors of the Federation of Chambers of Commerce of the Province of Quebec adopted unanimously at a meeting here last night a resolution respecting establishment of the Bata shoe factory in Canada.

They protested against what they said was the proposed immigration of "hundreds of Czechoslovakians under the guise of shoe-making technicians."

The company, formerly located in Czechoslovakia, has obtained an option for a factory at Frankford, Ont., near Trenton.

It has been estimated that since 1925, the operating cost of a popular priced car has decreased about 40 per cent.

Limited Russian Pact

Mutual Defence Treaty May Cover Only Britain, France and Soviet

By J. F. SANDERSON
 Canadian Press staff writer
 LONDON—With the Moscow negotiations bogged down again, diplomatic circles here are predicting that Russia, France and Great Britain will be forced to sign a military alliance of limited scope.

The newest stumbling block is a definition of indirect aggression, with Russia's ideas so far apart from Britain's that it appears unlikely they will be able to get together.

If agreement becomes impossible on an all-inclusive anti-aggression pact the three nations may negotiate a tripartite treaty covering only themselves.

In that event the treaty would bind the three nations to go to each other's assistance in the face of direct aggression against any one of them. It likely would provide for immediate consultation if aggression were directed against any other European nation.

The major difficulty at the moment is a definition of indirect aggression. The Russians are demanding an extremely wide definition relating to Estonia, Latvia and Finland, the three Baltic countries. Great Britain and France have agreed should be included in the pact. According to reports here, the Russian definition would include economic penetration liable to change foreign policy.

The British representatives in Moscow have argued that the Soviet definition would make the three Baltic countries practically Russian vassal states—the very thing Estonia, Latvia and Finland have feared all along.

It has been claimed the Russian definition would make it impossible for the three Baltic states to take any economic or political step to improve their relations with Germany without clashing with the triple alliance.

The Anglo-French definition was drafted with the German demilitarization of Czechoslovakia in mind and was designed to protect a state from indirect aggression which would be calculated to destroy its neutrality or sovereignty. Its terms did not go nearly as far as the Russian definition.

German Students To Work

BERLIN (CP-Havas)—The German government today decreed that higher study courses be suspended July 15 this year instead of August 1 to permit "mobilization" of students for harvest work. The government, faced with a shortage of agricultural labor, has taken sweeping measures to ensure a rapid harvest.

Jugoslav-Bulgar Neutrality Move

BELGRADE (AP)—Jugoslavia and Bulgaria, targets of strong Rome-Berlin axis pressure in the Balkans, were on record today with a declaration of "independence and neutrality."

The Bulgarian premier, George Kiossevanoff, returning from a state visit in Berlin, conferred with Prince Regent Paul and Foreign Minister Alexander Cankov Markovich of Yugoslavia.

A communiqué issued last night after their talk outlined the joint policy of the two nations.

DELAY DEBATE ON APPEALS CHANGE

B.C. Law Society Lays Over Motion Against Privy Council

VANCOUVER (CP)—The British Columbia Law Society has turned down—for this year at least—a proposal which would in effect demand abolition of appeals to the Privy Council in London.

The proposal was in the form of a resolution submitted by H. R. Bray and seconded by E. V. Finland, Conservative member of the provincial legislature for Esquimalt. It recommended the Supreme Court of Canada be constituted an appellate court with general appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal matters.

The resolution was laid over until the next meeting.

Resolutions endorsed at the one-day convention yesterday included:

Amendment of the Supreme and County Court rules to provide for removal of restrictions of proceedings in chambers and in the court registries during the July and August vacation.

Revision of the Income War Tax Act of Canada by insertion of provisions permitting bona fide family corporations to carry on business at a rate of tax

FRENCH, BRITONS LEAVE ITALY BORDER

Few Swiss and Dutch Go Home as Foreigners Expelled

ROME (AP)—Fifteen French and four British subjects were reported today to have received orders to leave Bolzano province immediately as the Italian government proceeded with forced expulsion of foreigners from the frontier areas adjoining Germany.

Some of several hundred foreigners living in Bolzano province, in the Italian Tyrol, meanwhile, left for their homes in Switzerland, the Netherlands or elsewhere under orders to go.

Paul Rugger, Swiss minister to Italy, was due back in Rome tomorrow and it was reported many of the Swiss who had received expulsion orders had been told to wait until he can get an explanation from the Italian Foreign Office.

It was said the Swiss minister would remind Italian authorities that 135,000 Italians live in Switzerland, many more than the number of Swiss citizens in Italy.

One Briton affected was understood to be a London journalist who had sent stories from Bolzano describing plans for transporting German residents back to Germany and holding a "nationality plebiscite." Through the projected plebiscite an estimated 150,000 German-Italians could make their choice between Germany and Italy.

Astrologers Shape Hitler's Course

NEW YORK (AP)—Chancellor Hitler maintains an advisory staff of five astrologers, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler said today, to read the stars and tell him what the future holds.

"At the present time," Dr. Butler said, "the advice of these wise men is that the climax of Hitler's career will come early in September and that whatever he is to do to add to his fame must be done before that date."

"This may sound like nonsense, but is the sort of nonsense which may easily give to modern civilization another terrific shock."

Dr. Butler, president of Columbia University, returned yesterday from London, where he attended a conference of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, of which he is president.

French Emergency Move

PARIS (AP)—The French council of ministers, meeting with President Albert Lebrun, voted to prohibit "until further order" all trips by ministers during the present international tension.

The order will have the effect of keeping all members of the cabinet on hand for immediate consultation.

German Official in Australia Rebuked

CANBERRA, Australia—Sir Henry Gullett, Minister for External Affairs, Tuesday rebuked Acting German Consul Seger in connection with a reference to the Danzig question by the first secretary of the German consulate at Melbourne.

The secretary said "Great Britain is putting her finger in a pie which does not concern her."

Sir Henry told Seger: "It is quite outside the function of any consular service in Australia to engage in propaganda against the United Kingdom and extremely undesirable, indeed intolerable, that a member of the staff of the German consulate should adopt a course which can only lead to difficulties, since the commonwealth has subscribed completely to Britain's peace policy."

I saw several planes fall in flames and watched the forced landing of another in Manchukuo territory. The Kwantung (Japanese) army spokesman told me the Japanese pilot who handled it had to have both legs amputated.

In the daylight over the Khalka, the Japanese planes apparently had greater maneuverability than the Soviet craft. The army spokesman said that in the fight I watched, 16 to 30 Soviet planes were shot down and that later in the day 43 Soviet planes were downed in another fight.

BRITON STRIPPED

TIENSIN (AP)—Another case of a Briton being compelled by a Japanese to disrobe at the gates of the blockaded British concession was reported here Tuesday.

Ivor House, resident of the concession who previously had been made to undress, said he was forced again to strip to his underwear for inspection by Japanese sentries. Three other Britons accompanying House were permitted to pass the barrier un molested.

JAPANESE QUESTION

Col. Spear at Kalgan

SHANGHAI (AP)—Dome (Japanese news agency) reported Tuesday from Peking that Lieut. Col. C. R. Spear, military attaché to the British embassy at Chungking, was taken before a Japanese military court at Kalgan last Wednesday.

There was no indication as to the outcome of the hearing for Spear, who had been held since May 25 on suspicion of espionage. Japanese said he entered their North China lines without previous arrangements.

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A 15-ton flying boat, built for the British Air Ministry, which alighted here to refuel en route from San Diego, Calif., to Felixstone, England, will remain overnight. Pilot Russell Rogers decided today, and leave at dawn tomorrow for Botwood.

After a delay due to refueling, Rogers decided against a takeoff late today which might require landing after dark in unfamiliar territory.

Face 6 Oil Firms

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Charging monopoly, the United States Attorney-General sued six major oil companies for $3,000,000 in federal court today.

The government seeks to establish the right of the Secretary of the Interior to fix minimum royalty prices for oil and gas taken from the federal lands and to collect royalties claimed due in the Kettleman Hills north of Fresno.

Francis Critchlow and James Murray, special assistants to the Attorney-General, charged that since 1931 the major companies have monopolized the market for Kettleman Hills crude oil and that the prices posted by them have been "noncompetitive, arbitrary, unreasonable and inadequate; less than the price currently posted and paid by said defendants in other California fields for comparable crude and less than the value of such oil."

Mongol Forces Hold Positions

By RUSSELL BRINES

Associated Press Foreign Staff
 At Japanese Army Headquarters near the Mongolian Frontier (delayed)—Remnants of Soviet-Mongolian forces apparently still held positions on the Manchukuoan side of the Khalka River late Monday night after a day of heavy artillery and aerial activity. This border engagement started May 11.

Bombardment by Soviet planes east of here along the Kholsten River was followed by a Japanese army spokesman's statement that the Russian airmen were dropping bacteriological bombs to contaminate the Japanese water supply.

He declared such bombing had begun Saturday and said dysentery germs were released in the water.

Shelling and bombing today was virtually without interruption. The Lama temple at Kanjurmalo, in which I have been living, was bombed three times within 24 hours, but damage was slight and there were no casualties.

I watched one aerial battle above the Khalka River, due west of Nomonhan, a height above the surrounding prairie which Soviet Mongol troops have occupied and held.

I saw several planes fall in flames and watched the forced landing of another in Manchukuo territory. The Kwantung (Japanese) army spokesman told me the Japanese pilot who handled it had to have both legs amputated.

SOVIET PAPER WARNS JAPANESE

Raids in Mongolia Will End in Fiasco, Says Army Paper

MOSCOW (AP)—Sharp warnings to Japanese that they were playing with fire in the Outer Mongolian undeclared warfare published by Soviet newspapers today as the Mongolian People's Republic observed the 15th anniversary of its founding with Soviet aid.

Red Star, Soviet army paper, said the Russian army was helping the Mongolian army in the fighting, which has been intermittent along the Manchukuo-Outer Mongolian frontier since May 11, and declared:

"The insolent raids of the Japanese provocateurs will end in a complete fiasco."

The Red Banner of Vladivostok, site of Russia's Far Eastern military base, listed five reasons why Japanese were "attacking" now:

1. To safeguard the left wing and rear of Japanese armed forces in the Far East while preparing for war against the Soviet Union;

2. To isolate Outer Mongolia and the Soviet Union from China;

3. To prevent union of the Chinese army with the Outer Mongolian and red armies;

4. To get control of Outer Mongolia's raw materials and livestock for use in a big war; and

5. To create a central base of operations on the Asiatic continent.

Amid the present large-scale fighting with Japanese-Manchukuoan forces, the Mongolian People's Republic is celebrating both the 15th anniversary of its founding and the 18th anniversary of the Soviet-aided revolution which led to establishment of the new state, independent of China.

Under Soviet protection, the republic of 900,000 chiefly herdsmen, has nationalized land, established state control of banking and credit, and set up a state monopoly of foreign trade, Red Star said.

JAPAN TROOPS MOVE

In Tiensin Fails

SHANGHAI (AP)—A Japanese river patrol attempted to extend its operations to the British bund in Tiensin Tuesday, but withdrew when additional British police were rushed to the Hai River front of the blockaded British and French concessions in that north China port.

The patrol landed on the bund in pursuit of a Chinese sampan operator. On the bund it also ordered Chinese police to arrest the operator of a Chinese junk. The Japanese went away when British police arrived.

About 150 bottles of milk, in place of the normal 5,000 bottles, were permitted into the British area Tuesday, according to dispatches. The British and French concessions have been under Japanese blockade since June 14.

Quebec Theatres Reopen

QUEBEC (CP)—Quebec city's 11 movie theatres are operating once more. They reopened yesterday after a period of idleness which had lasted since June 2, when they locked up in protest against a civic amusement tax increase.

Actually the new tax of 10 per cent was still in effect when they swung their doors open, but it will disappear within a day or two by resolution of the Quebec city council on the recommendation of Premier Duplessis.

BERLIN (AP)—Date of the annual Nazi Party congress at Nuremberg was set officially yesterday for September 2 through September 11, extending the time from the usual week to nine days.

U.S. SOON TO CLOSE THEATRE PROJECT

Bar in New Relief Act To Be Made Effective Before Deadline

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Theatre will be terminated two months before the September 30 deadline set by the United States Congress.

A requirement in the new relief act that no supervisory or administrative employee of the theatre projects could be paid after July 31 caused the decision to liquidate them this month, said F. C. Harrington, Works Progress Administration commissioner.

Meanwhile Congress received proposals to change hour provisions of the new law, and one death was attributed to violence growing out of relief project workers' strikes. In Minneapolis, Patrolman Frank Gearty, 42, died after an outburst of violence on a WPA picket line.

U.S. Wheat Estimated At 716,655,000

2,570,795,000 Bushels Of Corn Predicted On Early July Conditions

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States agriculture department estimates a total United States wheat crop of 716,655,000 bushels was indicated by July 1 conditions.

Corn production was forecast in a report issued yesterday at 2,570,795,000 bushels and the oats crop at 872,823,000 bushels.

Wheat production was 930,801,000 bushels last year, and in the 10 years, 1928-27, averaged 752,952,000.

The corn crop was 2,542,238,000 bushels last year and the 10-year average, 2,309,674,000.

Last year's oats crop was 1,053,839,000 bushels and the 10-year average, 1,049,300,000.

Winter wheat production, this year was estimated at 537,767,000 bushels, compared with 523,431,000 a month ago, 686,637,000 last year, and 560,160,000, the 10-year average.

Production of spring wheat (including durum) was forecast at 178,888,000 bushels, compared with 244,164,000 last year, and 192,792,000, the 10-year average.

Durum wheat production was put at 30,890,000 bushels, compared with 40,445,000 last year, and 35,076,000, the 10-year average.

Officials said today that of the August report continued to indicate a corn crop of around 2,570,795,000 bushels, the supply for the coming season might necessitate special governmental action to prevent unduly depressed prices. There is an estimated surplus of between 400,000,000 and 450,000,000 bushels from previous years.

Couple Facing Trial

BIEL, Switzerland (CP-Havas)—Ernst Schubach, former farmer of Bay Tree, Alta., and his wife will be tried September 12 for the alleged poisoning of the woman's first husband, Paul Henri Nicolet, prosecuting authorities said today.

Nicolet, a watchmaker of Biel, died suddenly in June, 1934. His widow was married to Schubach and together with the woman's nine-year-old son, Maurice, they went to Canada and took up residence 270 miles north of Edmonton.

Last year, after their return from Canada, they were arrested in connection with Nicolet's death. The trial has been delayed by investigation in Alberta of the disappearance in 1935 of the boy Maurice.

CANADA'S EXPORTS UP $71,000,000

All Parts of Dominion Shared In January-June Increase

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada's export trade for the first six months of 1939 was valued at $462,000,000, an increase of $71,000,000 over the corresponding period of 1938, according to figures issued by Hon. W. D. Euler trade minister. This represented an increase of nearly 100 per cent over the low in the depression year of 1933.

"This increase in Canada's export trade is reflected in Canadian industrial activities," said Mr. Euler, "most of which showed substantial increases in the first half of 1939, compared with the corresponding part of the preceding year, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics."

All parts of Canada shared in the increase, Mr. Euler said, although the low world price for wheat flour and wood pulp obscured to some extent the full significance of the upswing.

During the first six months of 1938 exporters received $9,264,910 for 1,651,331 barrels of wheat flour. This year, for 2,225,298 barrels, they received only $6,693,159.

During the half-yearly period this country exported 51,313,467 bushels of wheat in 1939, and received only $31,508,494. This was little more than $1,000,000 greater than was received during the corresponding period a year ago for only half the volume, or 25,783,863 bushels.

Shaw Comments On Havelock Ellis' Death

LONDON (AP)—George Bernard Shaw, who will be 83 years old July 26, commented today with typical frankness on the death of Henry Havelock Ellis: "Ellis lived his life and did his work. He belonged to my generation, and it is time for us to go. Havelock has gone first, that is all."

Ellis, author of voluminous works on sex psychology, died Saturday night at the age of 80.

25 Casualties in Mexican Clash

MEXICO CITY (AP)—About 25 persons were reported killed or injured yesterday near Celaya, Guanajuato state, when agrarians opened fire on members of a nationalist political organization known as "Sinarquistas." The clash occurred at Juan Martin Hacienda as the "sinarquistas" arrived on a political campaign tour. All the victims were said to be "Sinarquistas" from Celaya.

URGE LAWYER FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL

VANCOUVER (CP)—A resolution adopted last night at the annual convention of the Law Society of British Columbia recommends amendment of the Attorney-General Act of British Columbia to provide that the attorney-general must be a member of the bar in British Columbia.

C. H. Locke, K.C., sponsor of the resolution, pointed out that in Alberta Premier Aberhart, a layman, holds the portfolio of Attorney-General, and that the proposed measure was designed to prevent the same thing happening in this province.

He mentioned that Premier T. D. Pattullo, who is not a lawyer, once acted for a time as British Columbia's Attorney-General. The premier automatically became a King's Counsel.

"The object of the British Columbia statute is evidently that the attorney-general should be a lawyer, but it doesn't say so," Mr. Locke said.

Hertzog Says League Remains as Haven

CAPETOWN (CP-Reuters)—The League of Nations "even now is a haven of refuge for all the smaller states," in the opinion of Gen. Hertzog, Union Prime Minister.

In a speech in the Senate defending the League, he said:

"We do not sufficiently take into consideration not only how abnormal the times have been, but what the League of Nations, notwithstanding its original faults and weaknesses, has been able to achieve."

Gen. Hertzog told the Senate it was in South Africa's interests to remain a member of the League of Nations.

"Inevitably the League of Nations, though it covers only a portion of the nations of the world, is a haven, to the extent that a nation which otherwise would be inclined to despoil a small nation is not likely to do it when it knows there is any danger in that action."

CROPS GROW FAST IN SASKATCHEWAN

REGINA (CP)—Warmer weather during the last two weeks has promoted rapid growth of both wheat and coarse grains, according to a report issued today by the statistics branch of the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture.

Approximately 80 per cent of the wheat has reached the shot-blade stage and about 40 per cent is in head.

Severe hail storms struck at scattered points, the most severe being in the southeastern and southcentral districts. Grasshoppers have been more in evidence since the warmer weather set in, but actual crop damage is not extensive.

About 60 per cent of the summer fallowing has been completed. Livestock and pastures generally are in good condition.

Dr. Erik Ljunger, Swedish geologist, is of the opinion that South America once was buried under an ice cap.

MANION TRIES HIS LUCK IN FRENCH

Delivers Part of Speech at Rimouski In That Language

RIMOUSKI, Que. (CP)—As Conservative leader R. J. Manion travels farther east through Quebec his command of the French language increases. Such at least is the claim of French-speaking members of his party as he tours the Gaspé Peninsula.

Since Sunday morning when he left Quebec City, Dr. Manion has been speaking French and, although he frequently apologizes, improves with practice.

He made his first full-length speech of his tour here last night, partly in French, and for the first time discussed political problems in that language. Before that, in four or five short addresses to small groups, he had confined himself to personal references and thanks for receptions arranged in his honor.

About 2,000 people in this busy river town of 6,000 turned out last night to hear Dr. Manion and Mrs. Manion, who also spoke briefly in French.

Dr. Manion's speech was a challenge to the King government to declare an election.

Canadian problems could not be solved if the governments of the provinces were quarrelling continually with the federal government, he said.

Dr. Manion said one reason for the lack of harmony at present was the lack of confidence on the part of the people in the federal government.

Dr. Manion said a Toronto Communist paper had honored him by naming him "number one enemy" of the Communist Party.

This was because he supported a bill to prohibit use of the mails for Communist propaganda.

Dr. Manion said he had supported it because the Communist Party was revolutionary and in Russia, the only country where it was in power, it had attempted to destroy religion and family life.

He declared that in a democratic country like Canada there is no reason for a Communist Party.

Health Problems In Army Training

LONDON (CP)—Rt. Hon. L. C. M. Amery, former Dominion Secretary, warned the ninth Imperial Social Hygiene Congress yesterday that the vast increase of British defence forces is creating a major health problem.

"We have to face the fact that during this summer and autumn something like 700,000 young men will be in camps or depots under conditions which must inevitably create dangers to health unless special measures are taken," Mr. Amery declared.

"I fear there is a real danger the magnitude and importance of this problem may be neglected," he added.

Many Cars Tested

VANCOUVER (CP)—The motor license bureau testing station here handled a total of 15,281 motor vehicles during June, according to a report issued by Inspector John Murdoch.

Of the total number 9,088 successfully passed inspection, 4,905 were approved on a second inspection and 5,427 were vehicles that had been found defective in earlier examinations.

Revenue for the month totaled $4,634.

WOULD WIDEN DIVORCE LAWS

B.C. Law Society Favors Bringing Canada In Line With Britain

VANCOUVER (CP)—Widening of Canada's divorce law to bring it in line with the recently amended British law is favored in a resolution unanimously endorsed by the Law Society of British Columbia at its fifth annual convention here last night.

The resolution was introduced by George V. Pelton, Vancouver barrister, and seconded by P. McD. Kerr, also of Vancouver.

The resolution proposes enactment of a Canadian law of divorce similar to the Matrimonial Causes Act which was sponsored by A. P. Herbert in the British House of Commons and became effective in Britain January 1, 1938.

In British Columbia, adultery and bestiality are the only grounds on which divorce is at present permitted.

Under the British act, grounds include also desertion without cause for three years, cruelty, and incurable insanity. As grounds for nullity it includes social disease at the time of the marriage.

With the opposition in mind which Quebec is expected to offer to any widening of the present divorce laws, the convention adopted a further resolution "that the objections of any individual province be met by a section similar to that of the Matrimonial Causes Act which provides that such act shall not apply to Scotland or Northern Ireland, or alternatively, by a clause making any sections of the act inoperative in any province whose legislature so enacts within a year."

If you are paying for Electricity or Gas---
THIS GOVERNMENT SEAL ON METERS
is for your protection

THE Dominion of Canada was the first country in the world to adopt a complete system of national inspection and control of electricity and gas meters used for establishing a charge.

The division of government that pioneered this service is the Electricity and Gas Inspection Branch of the Department of Trade and Commerce. The act authorizing inspection and control came into effect for gas, in 1875; and for electricity, in 1894.

APPROVED—INSPECTED—SEALED

The Electricity and Gas Inspection Acts provide that, before being installed for the purpose of establishing a charge, each type of meter must be first approved. Then every meter must be tested for accuracy and upon passing tests shall be sealed by the government so that it cannot be opened or tampered with. After six years in service every meter must be re-inspected and re-sealed.

METER INSPECTION FROM COAST TO COAST

There are 20 offices maintained throughout Canada by the Government for the Electricity and Gas Inspection Service. These offices are supported by a main laboratory at Ottawa and two divisional laboratories in Winnipeg and Vancouver, also by a complete engineering service at Toronto for the design, construction and erection of equipment. Approximately 100 inspectors are necessary to adequately service every part of Canada where meters are used. Every meter in use must have the government seal. This red wax seal is the guarantee of the Department of Trade and Commerce that the meter was approved as to type; inspected for accuracy, then closed and sealed. No meter can be installed until inspected by a government officer and all meters must be re-tested every six years to verify their accuracy. You may seldom see this seal on your meter, but it is there as the symbol of a protective and progressive service.

THE GOVERNMENT KEEPS A RECORD OF EVERY METER

There were 2,658,317 meters in use in Canada for electricity, manufactured gas and natural gas, at March 31, 1939. Each meter is numbered. Its history and location are recorded in government files. The 20 offices of the Electricity and Gas Inspection Service have every meter under control.

SUPERVISION PROMOTES CONFIDENCE

The person who buys electricity or gas, and the contractor who sells the same, are both protected by the Electricity and Gas Inspection Acts. The Electricity and Gas Inspection Service is administered by the Department of Trade and Commerce. It is one of several government services inaugurated to keep under control the comparatively newer industrial developments of modern civilization.

"Incident"

JAPAN'S UNDECLARED WAR ON CHINA has entered its third year. We did not realize what an appalling war it is until today we saw it estimated that between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 persons have already lost their lives in it.

There were "only" about 10,000,000 killed in the Great War, which lasted over four years!

His Great Mistake?

IT IS NOT UNLIKELY THAT A DAY will come when Herr Hitler will realize he committed the greatest error of his meteoric career when he seized what was left of Czechoslovakia. There may have been some point to his argument for the return of the Rhineland, the Saar, and those parts of Sudeatland so thoroughly German in population and spirit. And he might have proved his case in respect of Danzig if he had shown that he was ready to discuss the problem fairly; but he has alienated, by his vicious power technique, every sympathy which might have been shown him.

Yet Czechoslovakia, despite Der Fuehrer's talk of "ancient German living-room," was and is peopled by Czechs and Slovaks. And there is evidence that they do not take kindly to the efforts to Germanize them, any more than Italians incorporated into the old Austria-Hungarian empire years ago responded to similar efforts. In Poland, in France, and in other countries, refugee Czechs are organizing into Czech legions when the law permits, or joining the armies of those countries when it does not. Gen. Lev Prchala, last Czech governor of Carpathia, hints that should war break out, even the Czechs still under the German fist in the homeland "would know what to do."

Nor should it be forgotten that when the Reich took the final bite at what once was the sovereign and independent state of Czechoslovakia, Der Fuehrer violated the principle which he himself laid down and on which he made a great play during, and immediately after, the Munich tragedy. All he demanded was permission to bring into the Reich those peoples who were German and could never be anything else but German. This was not enough. So it may come to pass that the Czech state, a healthy body when it existed by itself, may prove a cancer as part of the Reich's organism.

Christians in Pompeii?

NOVELIST BULWER LYTTON IN "THE Last Days of Pompeii" made Pompeii a scene of drama between earnest Christians and sophisticated pagans. Scholars have challenged him for assuming so readily for the sake of making a good story that by the time of the fatal outpouring of Vesuvius in 79 A.D. Christianity had reached Pompeii. Of this there had been no evidence.

Recently, however, Italian excavators found a column in Pompeii bearing strange lettering, a square of five words. It can be read backward or forward, up or down. The words are: Rotas (wheels), Opera (works), Tenet (holds), Arepo (possibly an angel's name), Sator (sower). This odd formula has been found at Dura on the Euphrates, and in Roman ruins in England. It has been used, more recently, in magic. The theory that a Jew converted to Christianity constructed the formula to express his new faith and to announce or call down divine judgment on Rome is advocated by Prof. Floyd V. Filson of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Chicago. Writing in the Biblical Archaeologist, he compares ways of interpreting the strange message. Now that it has also been reported that an impression of a cross is found in Pompeii, Prof. Filson says, if this is confirmed, the evidence of Christianity there is much strengthened.

If the mystic square proves Christian secret writing, it leads to what Prof. Filson calls a "revolutionary conclusion": Not only were there Christians in Pompeii, but Nero's persecutions at Rome in 64 A.D. had rapidly aroused Christians of Italy to produce and cherish a formula announcing divine judgment on Rome. And most important for Bible history, there were Latin-speaking Christians in Italy in the third quarter of the first century. Heretofore, Greek has been associated with these Christians. Prof. Filson now wonders whether earliest Latin translators of the New Testament worked, not in Africa, but in Italy.

Glass Houses

THE FIRST HOUSE ENTIRELY BUILT of glass has been set up at the New York Fair. Literally, it may be true. But we all live in glass houses, in spite of our delight in throwing stones. That goes for nations, as well as individuals.

We toss verbal stones at the totalitarian countries because they have no liberty. But are some features of our social and economic structure as satisfactory as they might be? Few would argue they are, and in that is our glass house. We deplore Japanese blockade of the concessions in China. But how did the western nations get those concessions in the first place? That is their glass house. Leaders of our political parties in Canada are now beginning to exchange verbal brickbats, but are there no elements of glass in their houses?

Fewer brickbats flying through the air today would be a help on every front, international, national and personal. The barrage would decrease if every bricktossor would first look over his own house for vulnerable elements of glass.

Vacations and Cruelty

IT IS TIMELY TO BE REMINDED BY the Hamilton Spectator that this is the season of an annually recurring evil, the abandoning of domestic pets to their own resources while their owners are enjoying themselves away from home. It is utterly callous and selfish cruelty. It is practiced, we are sorry to say, by some here as well as in Ontario. For instance, dogs for which a great show of affection is made at other times of the year, are in some cases turned loose for the duration of the vacation, to live or starve until the return of their conscienceless masters. Cats would fare even worse, if they were not, perhaps, more resourceful in picking up a lean living. Sometimes the eaged bird is left to chirp out its neglected little life in solitude.

Yet such heartless persons call themselves "animal lovers" and can become painfully sentimental on the subject of "dumb, defenceless creatures." If these poor little animals could only speak, what an indictment they might bring against their so-called protectors. Thoughtlessness is no excuse. To pack up and go off without a qualm, leaving "pets" to their pitiful fate whenever it is inconvenient to provide for them, is not thoughtless, but deliberate. Also, it is an indictable offence under the Criminal Code of Canada, Chapter 36, section 542.

Frank to the Rescue

FRANK MERRIWELL, WHOM WE KNEW surreptitiously but well in our schoolboy days, is to ride again. Gilbert Patten, who as Burt L. Standish conducted this remarkable young man through a maze of adventures for a vast nickel-and-dime novel audience, wants to bring him back. Not however, as a mere adventure-thriller, but streamlined as a crusader against intolerance and racial antipathy.

Mr. Patten has been moved to action by what he has been observing of the workings of religious and racial prejudices and passions in the contemporary world. He hears a call to revive his pulp literature paladin to break a lance for decency and tolerance in a new series of stories especially designed to teach those lessons.

We hope he does. Frank laid low many a villain in his day, but none more contemptible than the one against which Mr. Patten now proposes to pit him. To both Mr. Patten and the rejuvenated Merriwell, then, success.

Industrial developments most interesting to watch have to do with industries that are in the expanding stage. Not the ones laboriously climbing back toward their pre-depression levels, but those which are reaching higher and higher year by year. Rayon production again in 1938 through the world broke all records. But in this new industry it is not one of the great commercial nations of the west, but Oriental, Japan that is leading the world in output. Germany is second. United States with little more than half Japan's production total comes third, with the other great countries trailing behind.

Business on the Up-grade

From Toronto Star

Wholesale sales in Canada averaged over 6 per cent higher in May than in the same month of 1938. The index rose from 87.1 in April to 101.5 in May. For the first five months of the year, the index was higher than in the first five months of the year previous.

That is the record in wholesale business. In 12 lines of retail trade for which the bureau of statistics has compiled the May figures, retail sales also ranged 6 per cent higher than in May of 1938. And they were 4 per cent above those of April. The official report says:

"Indexes, adjusted for number of business days and for normal seasonal variations, show that the improvement in the underlying trend in consumer purchasing which commenced in March this year and was also evident in April continued in May. The adjusted index for May stands at 81.1 compared with 79.2 for April, 76.3 for March and 75.6 for February."

No doubt the Royal Visit played its part in stimulating sales in May, but it will be seen that the trend towards more active buying has been manifest for a number of months. Frightened money has been coming out of its hole. And so it should. Employed people should spend in the usual way and thus employ others in the manufacture of the goods they buy.

AT DAWN

YOU CAN ENJOY Vancouver Island any time. Only at dawn can you own it. Then it is all yours, before its other owners have awakened, when it is lying beside the sea, silent, motionless, like a picture that you can take up in your hands.

And driving down the Island Highway in the dawn, when there is no life on the road save a curious, long-eared fawn among the bracken, you are as lonely as a cloud scudding above the earth. You feel, if you have imagination and your head is clear hours before breakfast, rather like an angel, flitting all unknown past these people asleep in their beds beside the road.

You feel, as you sweep through silent town and village, past lonely house and quiet stable, like those other great riders of history and romance, like the three fellows in Browning's poem who rode from Ghent to Aix, like Galahad, like Paul Revere, like the Ride of the Valkyries. Your imagination works freely three hours before breakfast in the island dawn.

The bay of Comox is utterly still now, a vast saucer of blue hills filled with blue water, and in it floats the slim battle cruiser Orion, "as idle as a painted ship upon a painted ocean." No finer sight in the world, Comox lying beside its bay, with the marching line of the mainland mountains behind it, floating in a fine blue mist. Finer than the English channel on a summer day, more blue than the Italian lakes, softer, kinder than the Rockies.

LYING STILL

ALL IT LACKS is a poet—a Wordsworth who wrote his great sonnet on the sight of London at dawn from Westminster Bridge, when "all that mighty heart is lying still." But London is small and cramped and grimy compared to this, and you could put it all in a small corner of the sweep of land and water beside you as you race along, going south.

And, ah, the smell of the island in the dawn! The smell of the lush, succulent growth that nothing can surpass, that even now is sweeping like a green tide over the black scar of last year's big fire—the sweet smell of bracken and the clean, hard smell of cedar and the gusts of sweetness that pour out of the fields where the hay is newly cut. And the glisten of the dew on alder leaves, and the sharp black shadows across the sunny road, and the darting rays of the sun through the great fir branches, so clear that you can almost grasp them, like a solid thing, in your hands.

AWAKE AND ASLEEP

EVERYWHERE MEN ARE ASLEEP, but nature is awake, working with the dawn, pushing up her myriad green things so that the whole country is covered with a frothing foam of green. And see how, beside every log cabin, every poor board shack of the new settler, the climbing roses are abloom, trailing over the gate and the ramshackle porch, and there are honeysuckles that hand you a whiff of perfume as you pass, and the flame of red poppies in the tiny gardens.

Give them a few centuries to work in, a short time compared with the tolling years that made England exquisite, and these will be cottages like picture postcards, these gardens will be lined with hedges, these fields, now full of black stumps, will be like garden lawns, bounded by trimmed hedges.

Give the island time. It is young yet and the restless forest keeps surging in on the little clearings, for nature is jealous of the intruder here. Now is nature working against him while the island sleeps. No smoke comes from the chimneys by the roadside and the cottages look wide-eyed, blinking in the morning sun while their inmates lie unconscious of the dawn, of the sunlight and the perfumes of the woods.

But as you come further south a thin trail of smoke rises from a bare board shack in a little clearing. The island is waking now. You are no longer alone, but down to earth again among men. No sign of life yet in Qualicum or Nanaimo, but north of Duncan an old Indian, with a face of carved dark wood, is driving his empty hay wagon, nodding, half asleep on the seat, and he looks up suddenly, like a terrified monkey, as you sweep past.

A little further along a new settler is working in his 10x10 garden, breaking up the new soil with a hoe, fighting down the bracken which bursts up, undaunted, through his little patch of potatoes and onions. Give him time, give him a lifetime, and he will hand on a farm here to his son, but he must be up with the dawn or nature will beat him.

Now the smoke is curling out of every chimney. The stillness and poignant hush of the dawn is gone. Men are up and about, children are playing outside the houses, milk cows are ambling beside the road, gazing at you with a scowl. The island is awake again and not yours alone as it was an hour ago. It has returned to its rightful owners. You are no longer Galahad or Paul Revere or a lonely cloud sweeping across the empty earth. You are a fellow driving a car, rather too fast, and thinking of breakfast in Victoria.

Will Roosevelt Run?

By ELMORE PHILPOTT

ONE OF THE most important questions for all of us these days is whether or not Franklin D. Roosevelt is going to be a candidate for a third term as President of the United States. It is important for us because the whole course of action of the United States in the near future will be colored by the domestic American situation. Mr. Roosevelt's enemies have already used the world-situation as a club wherewith to smite their foe at home. When senators vote these days on the Neutrality Bill or any other similar piece of legislation they are more likely to be thinking about Roosevelt and the next election, and how he might use that act, rather than about the intrinsic merits of the bill itself.

I think that President Roosevelt has virtually made up his mind to run again. I think this not only because several key politicians have recently made statements which indicate that they personally are sure of that intention, but also because all the Roosevelt causes demand it.

The New Deal has altered the whole social set-up of the United States. The New Deal is now under heavy fire, which is sure to get more intense as the election approaches. If the Republicans win the election they must do so by beating the New Deal in the minds of the majority of the American voters. The New Deal is Roosevelt. No other New Deal nominee would have anything like as good a chance to win on that particular issue.

On the other hand the very deep sentiment of the American people against third terms for Presidents is certain to intensify the bitterness of the struggle if Mr. Roosevelt does decide to run again.

In any event I expect to see the hottest election in the United States that I have ever seen.

HIGH LIVING IN LONDON

To the Editor:—Peter Stursberg writes in the Victoria Times of London as a place where the tourist is always cheated. He evidently believes in hitting out, right or wrong.

As a large part of the Empire does not use dollars, it is as well to learn 1 pound equals 20 shillings and 1 shilling equals 12 pennies. If visitors hold out pound notes anywhere saying "take what you want" they ask for it. London, being cosmopolitan, many of the so-called joints are not British owned.

Tourists generally find they receive courtesy by people and police—and an unbiased mind much to admire—in London, England. There are expensive places, rates and taxes being high at present. If enough trouble is taken rooms, food and goods can be found at reasonable prices, prices shown plainly. The rush times are well taken care of and accident can be avoided by reasonable care.

During my visits to New York and other parts, most of Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Africa, Paris, I have found London second to none for honesty.

CHEMAMUS' HALF CENTURY

From Cowichan Leader

Chemamus is to be congratulated upon the very fine celebration staged to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Co. Ltd.

Overshadowing all was the spirit which pervaded the celebration. Mr. T. J. Humbird, Spokane, president of the company, was obviously deeply moved when he addressed the gathering at the school and spoke of the evidence of co-operation between the employees and the company, a co-operation which he felt would pull Chemamus through where others would fail.

The announcement of Mr. J. A. Humbird, general manager of the institution of service badges for each five-year period from five years upwards, and the start of distribution by Mrs. Humbird to those employees who have already earned them gave evidence of permanence for the future. Mr. Charlie Smith's record of 47 years of service with the company has few equals in B.C.

BEER FOR VICTORIA AND THE C.C.F.

To the Editor:—It is a principle of the C.C.F. that all letters received shall be acknowledged. At times, however, this is rather difficult and expensive due to the number received. I would, therefore, appreciate the privilege of utilizing the medium of your newspaper at this time.

Of recent weeks several hundred letters have been received from Victoria citizens protesting against any means which would make it possible to buy or sell beer by the glass in the City of Victoria.

We desire to acknowledge receipt of these letters, and to inform the writers in particular, and the citizens of Victoria in general, that this matter will be placed before an early meeting of our Legislative Group and that, in the meantime, we are endeavoring to obtain the fullest information possible on the situation.

HAROLD E. WINCH

RELIGION NOT ENOUGH

To the Editor:—There are certain people who claim that the trouble with the world today is spiritual, not economic, saying that men's souls must be saved ere aught can be done for their bodies.

Others there are who say we can do nothing, but must wait for a Messiah to come and put things right, making this an excuse for a laissez-faire attitude towards the situation, and a complacent disregard to the sufferings and misery around them.

That which pertains to the spiritual part of man is as personal and intimate as birth and death, but his economic or physical life should be the concern of all, seeing that we are the one common clay and children of the same mother, Earth.

In healing the sick, it matters not to the doctor whether the patient be saint or sinner, and if one should see another fellow-being in danger, say, of drowning, one does not wait for some celestial being to come and help, but, peeling off one's coat, one rushes to the rescue. The same logical commonsense should be applied to the larger issues that face us today.

They are often called Utopians, who believe that this present social order, which with all its resources and facilities for an abundant life for all, yet allows countless millions of men, women and little children to go short of the bare necessities of life. This system, which contains the seeds of perpetual war and by its very nature breeds hatred and greed, should give way to one more co-operative and more fitting to our intelligence. Yet, could anything be more Utopian than to believe that those who hold the peoples of the earth in economic bondage and who move governments like pawns on a chessboard, would, through some sudden religious conversion and of their own free will, surrender their power and be content to be common citizens in a co-operative commonwealth.

CRAIGFLOWER SCHOOL QUESTION

To the Editor:—May we point out that the Craigflower Ratepayers' Association appear to be occupied with the position of improved property owners in the area to the exclusion of other interests.

They apparently do not challenge the figures issued last year by the association, which prove that the district as a whole has been heavily overcharged by Saanich; neither are they considering the interests of the children, who, under the official trustee's scheme, would be given the advantages of attending Lampson Street School and Victoria High School.

LABOR AND STREET CARS VS. BUSES

To the Editor:—It was not the intention of our association to in any way interfere or meddle with the action of the Victoria City Council on bus transportation matters until we found that the Street Railwaymen's Union appeared to be adopting very aggressive and dictatorial tactics with the council for the furtherance of their own ends. In our opinion the Victoria City Council must use their endeavors to impartially get for the citizens of Victoria and District the best available means of transportation. When the Street Railwaymen's Union has been so persistently appearing before the council we thought it only right that we also should have a hearing, and our association therefore instructed some of our executive to appear before the council and give them our views on this bus transportation matter.

Our association and its members are not asking of the citizens of Victoria or anyone else to help us in any old age or other pension plans. All we are asking for is good honest work at fair wages if bus transportation comes into Victoria. Our association is composed of young men who have passed their Class A public driver's test and our members, to pass such test, must be both physically and mentally fit and must at all times subject themselves to further tests if the B.C. licensing authorities require us to do so. We are also required to pay an annual license fee of $7.50. We are young men with young wives and growing families who would like to all be good citizens and own our own homes in the City of Victoria or district.

It is obvious to our association that motor bus transportation is the modern means of transportation for a city such as Victoria, and while we have every sympathy with men who have been working for the B.C. Electric as long as many of the street railway employees have been, at the same time we hardly think this should be given too much consideration when looking after the best interests of the people of Victoria in giving them a good and up-to-date means of transportation for the city and district.

We will say that ours is a Vancouver Island organization of Class A drivers. We are not affiliated with any outside organization of labor and we hope to keep ours a British Columbia organization, controlled only by our members operating in this province. Last Friday afternoon Mr. Fox of the B.C. Electric Employees' Association said that they were affiliated with the big American Federation of Labor, and tending to belittle our local organization, but have fully considered such affiliations and have decided up to now to carry on our own negotiations with our own employers without outside or foreign influence.

W. EATON.

WHERE MANSIONS BE

To the Editor:—To do justice, to love mercy, to walk humbly, according to the dictates of Holy Writ, are the three great cardinal virtues of the better life. I was reminded of this when reading the excellent article in your paper a few days ago, dealing with a recent publication by the Dean of Canterbury.

This challenging contribution to the discussion which is going on today regarding our present social "dis"order, entitled "An Appeal to the Mind and Heart of Britain," gives one who has any regard for his country, food for very serious searching of heart. The question which should be exercising religious people today, insists the Dean of Canterbury, is not "Have we said

SIDE GLANCES

By George Clark

"What's your best long-term investment for a dime?"

our prayers? not have we recited the creed? not have we gone to church? but have we fed the hungry? have we clothed the naked?"

May I suggest, in all seriousness, that this might be a very fruitful subject for our Ministerial Association here in Victoria to place on their agenda when meeting from time to time. I know there are thoughtful men on that body who would like to see justice done, men who are not devoid of merciful feelings towards their neighbors; whether they incline to walk very humbly is not for me to say; but I would contend that if ever there was a time when Christian ministers should be humble in their walk and conversation it is the day in which we live. Our ships loading in every port with munitions for arrogant Japan to blast innocent Chinese women and children to pieces; thousands of our own citizens living on the borderline of hunger; our young people leaving school every year without a hope (if not without God) in the world of securing employment; here in Canada the richest country on God's earth, whilst our politicians go prating platitudes down in California about the potential wealth of the country.

It is all very well to talk up in the air about that better land where the many mansions be; what true shepherds of Christ's flock should concern themselves about more particularly is to see that the sheep are provided with a proper fold and suitable pasturage here below. If ministers of God would concern themselves about these things and less about really unessential matters, and determine that present unwholesome conditions should be cleared away, I verily believe we should be in line for a new reformation that would sweep this country and ultimately the world, bringing to birth a better social order.

In the meanwhile, what is to hinder the united Ministerial Associations of Canada deciding that the wicked injustice being inflicted upon the defenceless women and children of China must cease, in so far as our supplying scrap iron to the enemy is concerned. I should like to ask every Christian minister in Canada, whatever his denomination, the pertinent question: "What would Jesus do?" A really determined protest from the Christian pulpits of Canada would stop the ungodly traffic tomorrow; there is not the slightest doubt in the world about that. DAVID GRIEVE TUCKWELL, 1017 Burdett Avenue.

RELIGION CAN'T BE TOLERANT

To the Editor:—The recent booklet put on the market by the Dean of Canterbury, and entitled "An Appeal to the Mind and Heart of Britain," has received a considerable amount of eulogy from the press of this country, as evidenced by the article which recently appeared in your paper.

No doubt, the Dean's booklet deserves all the praise it is getting. But many people are wondering how a prelate of organized religion and a man of such high standing in the Christian church,

SORE, INFLAMED PERSPIRING FEET!

And one bottle we know will show you beyond all question that you have at last discovered the way to solid foot comfort and real foot pleasure at last.

MacFarlane's Drug Store

could possibly voice such a degree of intolerance toward a system that has been the mainstay of his life and position.

The Dean as a man of both science and letters, seems to place much more reliance in the former, and, in fact, minces no words in his advice to all and sundry to "act now" in a like manner. I think it was Isaac Goldberg that said: "So long as religions endure, genuine tolerance will not be possible in the world." Every step toward a greater toleration—even when that step is made in the name of religion—is a step forward to science and a step away from religion.

The Dean apparently realizes that the spirit of tolerance advocated at this time when the people of practically all the earth are experiencing such want and misery, would become a suicidal vice. He also knows that tolerance is a natural reaction to the more primitive practice of intolerance, which was created by the competitive and religious systems.

The Dean knows well that it is possible to be so fair to an enemy, especially such an enemy of mankind as our capitalist and religious systems very obviously are, that one becomes unfair to one's self, ultimately annihilating one's own position. He also knows that it would be a distinct evil, when one considers that one is in the right.

This booklet, instead of cheapening the author by its publication (as the nickname of "Two-penny Dean," attributed to him since its publication, would suggest) has placed him on a pedestal, far removed, and soaring above his fellow ecclesiastics. JOHN McDERMOTT,

MOTHER LOVE

To the Editor:—I was canvassing a mother on Quadra Street. I had asked her not to make any free gift to help save the perishing millions of China's women and children, but to buy a ticket and indulge her taste for the beauty in art by seeing Soo Yong paint to us in living colors, as she did that same night at the Empire Theatre, the pure, holy, unadulterated love of "Mother China" for her children. She said, "I'm so sorry; I have to go to the country this afternoon, but to such a cause as China's I must give, though it hurts. I have my own children to feed; but I cannot see their children die in misery, and stand idle. That hurts my heart. Here's 'four bits'; I trust The Friends of China in Victoria will not let it rust in the Bank of Montreal for six months. They need it now over there, where Madame Chiang has just said 'We all pray and trust this will be the last year of this murderous invasion of our homes'."

NON-RESIDENT SUPPORT

To the Editor:—Captioned "Interest in Civic Affairs," Mr. E. D. Bukin, 120 Sims Avenue, champions Mrs. Alice McGregor as an aldermanic possibility for the city council. That is nice of him. I have voted for Mrs. McGregor, probably would have done so again at the next civic election, but unfortunately for her it is impossible for me to support a non-resident candidate in any manner of election. Mr. Bukin's address, i.e., Sims Avenue, set me wondering where it put in Saanich, and sure enough it is; and checking a step further, to my utter surprise, so is 1190 Camrose Crescent!

NO DETAIL SEEN ON PLANET MARS

Too Far South for Local Astronomers to Make Good Observations

Victoria astronomers have been unable to make any detailed observations of the planet Mars despite the fact it is closer to the earth than it has been for 15 years.

The difficulty, as far as the local star gazers are concerned, is the planet is too low down on the horizon, being 26 degrees below the equator.

H. Boyd Brydon, a well-known Victoria astronomer, said it was unfortunate local members of the Astronomical Society were unable to get a good view of the planet. He thought it might be possible, with a good pair of binoculars, to distinguish between the white poles and remainder of the planet, but it was impossible to see any detail.

Astronomers in California and points further south have been given an opportunity of studying the planet in considerable detail. On July 27 it will be within 36,030,000 miles of the earth, which in astronomical distances, is not very far.

Condemns London As 'Museum Piece'

LONDON (CP)—London, in the view of architect Frank Lloyd Wright, is a museum piece, and as a modern city is "not fit for human habitation."

The builder who designed Tokio's Imperial Hotel, only earthquake proof structure in the city in the 1923 disaster, came here to deliver four lectures in the Sir George Watson memorial series and left sentimental over London, but condemning it.

Said Wright: "Your government is making plans to evacuate the city. Why not evacuate it for good? There is plenty of room on this green earth for everybody." He declared he could build a perfectly bombproof shelter, "but why should I?"

"If statesmen cannot solve the problem at its source, civilization is hardly worth saving. People should be allowed to live above earth—they will be under it soon enough."

Wright sat in an old-fashioned hotel, drew designs on the floor with a cane while he talked to newspapermen. He said he liked London's green parks, hated skyscrapers. But "in England I have found the greatest cultural lag outside of Russia and the United States."

More than $100 in prizes are being offered in these three classes.

Take No Insurance

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Vancouver City Council in properties, licenses and claims committee yesterday decided against carrying an accident insurance policy to protect the city against possible claims laid against it.

Alderman John Bennett, committee chairman, said a review of the last five years showed that claims paid out came to considerably less than the premiums the city would have had to pay.

He was born at Pikeville, Tenn., and educated at the People's College, Pikeville, and Cumberland University, being admitted to the bar of Tennessee in 1893. In 1910 he married Mary C. Will Make Survey On Why Women Take Jobs

LONDON—Miss Zonola Longstreth, an American lawyer and European organizer of the Federation of Professional Women's Clubs, has arrived in England to make a national survey on "Why Women Work."

On her arrival she stated emphatically: "It's love that's the great mischief-maker. Romance makes a girl regard her job as a stopgap until Prince Charming comes along."

"That attitude, of course, automatically destroys her workaday life and prospects and helps to bolster the boss's view that man is the breadwinner, woman the homemaker, and that no female, however brilliant, is worth training for an executive job."

WOULD SHARE PLUMS

"There are millions of husbands today who can't afford to keep their wives, and the women are learning from bitter experience that a domestic career or bringing up a large family with a small income provides a far greater strain than the heaviest office or factory work. So woman, in taking her business life more seriously, resents low wages and bad conditions, and feels she should share the plums."

"Industry and the professions, she rightly argues, exist for the provision of goods and service in the most efficient manner possible. And the best person, whether that person be male or female, should be in the best job."

MARRIAGE BEST JOB

Dr. Lena Madesin Phillips of New York, president of the International Federation of Business and Professional Women, when she landed at Southampton from the Queen Mary, said: "Marriage is the ideal job for a woman. Some women do not get a chance to make out at the best job in the world; that is just too bad for them."

"Marriage and a career are quite possible—increasingly so. In our country most women who can afford it send their children to nursery schools as soon as they can. Once the children are being looked after there is not really enough work in the ordinary house to keep a woman busy. "This is my advice to all girls—the advice of a spinster with a successful career as judged by money and position: "Marry if you meet the right man. A career is always possible later if you want one."

Girls Attend Hi-Y Conclave

The first presidents' training conference began at the Galiano holiday camp of the Y.W.C.A. a week ago, when delegates representing the various Hi-Y clubs attended to receive training for their duties as officers during the coming year.

The staff for this camp included Miss Margaret Hart, senior girls' work secretary; Miss Mary Westwood, Hi-Y secretary, and Miss Doris Goodall, assistant Hi-Y secretary, all of the Vancouver Association. Miss Dorte Glahn, also of Vancouver, attended as sports director, and Miss Dorothy Beech, girls' work secretary of the Victoria Association.

Each day's activity began at 7 with a morning-dip, followed by breakfast, worship in the cathedral in the pines, workshop periods and executive meetings. The latter were of great assistance to the girls in gaining suggestions that will be helpful in fall and winter activities.

Recreation included hikes, games and swimming.

This was the first conference of its kind held by the girls' Hi-Y clubs in the west and it is expected that a similar conference will be held next summer. The main purpose of the organization is to help all teenage girls "to learn to live a fuller, richer and more worthwhile life."

SOLARIUM ADMITS FEWER PATIENTS

The Queen Alexandra Solarium has five less young patients according to the medical superintendent, Dr. Glenn Simpson's report for June issued today. During the month four admissions and nine discharges were made.

There were 68 patients in the Solarium at the end of June. One patient of the institution is in the Jubilee Hospital. Twenty-seven consultations were made.

Six operations were performed during the month. X-rays numbered 68 and laboratory examinations 227. Three casts and two reinforcements were provided and there were 573 physiotherapy treatments and exercises.

The following is a letter, typical of many received from parents of the child patients, that was sent by a mother to the Solarium last month: "I have been so happy having J— home, Mr. A—and myself send our many thanks for your kindness and attention shown to baby while at the Solarium and we are delighted with his condition and training. He is a very good boy. Will you kindly thank all the nurses for their kindness as well and sometime I will bring J— up to see you all. We both wish you and all good health to carry on the splendid work you are doing for others. Once again many thanks. Yours sincerely, Mrs. A—"

VANCOUVER (CP)—Edna Josephine Maude Dilworth, niece of Ira Dilworth of Vancouver, and John E. A. Parnall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Perry Parnall, were married in Ryerson United Church last night. Rev. W. R. Brown officiating. Miss Dilworth is well known in Victoria, where she attended school and resided until a few years ago.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, wore a long lace train over a Grecian mode heavy satin gown, and a Juliet cap of orange blossom buds with a hand-embroidered veil. Her bouquet was of gardenia and lily of the valley.

The bridesmaid, Bette M. Southern of Victoria, wore a forget-me-not blue, double net, full-length dress with a jacket of the same net and matching grosgrain ribbon. Mr. David M. Mitchell supported the groom.

Following the ceremony the guests were welcomed at a reception at the Georgia Hotel by Mrs. Dilworth, Mrs. F. Southern and Mrs. J. P. Parnall. The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, was charming in a gown of turquoise blue crepe, with all-white accessories, and carried a lovely bouquet of regal lilies and maiden-hair fern, the gift of Mrs. F. L. Scott. She was attended by her twin sister, Miss Betty Morrison, and Mr. Jas. Akerman supported his brother as best man.

A reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents followed the ceremony, at which only relatives and close friends of the family were present. Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Akerman left on the morning ferry for a honeymoon trip up Vancouver Island, and on their return will make their home in the Burgoyne Valley.

First United Scene Of Beautiful Wedding

McCall-Holdridge Nuptials Attract Large Throng of Friends; Rose-bowered Setting Draws Admiration; Will Reside in Winnipeg After Southern Honeymoon

The palest shades of blue, pink and orchid were combined to form a distinctive and fragile picture at the wedding last night in First United Church of Lauretta May, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. McCall, 534 Trutch Street, to William Franklin Holdridge of Winnipeg, only son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Holdridge, 51 South Turner Street. Mr. G. A. Peaker presided at the organ, and the full choir was present and sang the hymn "O Father, All Creating" during the service. As the register was being signed Mr. William Inglis sang "Love's Coronation." The bride and groom spoke their vows after Rev. Hugh McLeod under an arch entwined with pale pink rose blossoms and sword fern, flanked by four slanting candelabra, each bearing seven glowing white tapers. Behind the arch were placed four large bowls containing profusions of Regal lilies and maiden-hair fern, and on either side ranged a tiny white picket fence, daintily sprayed with Regal lilies and sword fern. Four tall white standards formed a semicircle about the spot where the bride and groom stood, filled with Regal lilies and fern. Along the bottom of the choir stall were twined rambling pale pink roses.

The guest pews bore quaint Victorian nosegays in miniature of white pinks centred with pink carnations tied to the posts with narrow white satin ribbon. The decorations were under the supervision of Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. C. Goodwin and Mrs. M. Wright.

A DAINTY BRIDE
As she entered the church on her father's arm, the blonde bride looked exquisite in a flesh-tone model gown of fine lace, tight-fitting at the waist, with square décolletage. The dress had long tight sleeves and broke from the waist into a flowing bouffant skirt with long train. A ruching of net hemmed the skirt on which were tucked tiny orange blossoms. A charming note from the past was the medallion of lace and pearls inserted in the ivory satin slip which was worn by the bride's mother on her wedding day. Her sheer illusion veil was caught at both sides of her head by orange blossoms, and billowed in folds to the floor. She carried a shower of Talsman roses and swansons.

In charming complement to the bride's dress were those worn by the maid of honor, Miss Rita Armstrong, in mauve, and the two bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Crimmond in coral pink and Miss Charlotte Crawford in pale blue. Their ivory satin slips were embellished with delicate garlands of flowers in the three shades, over which was worn sheer white crepe nylon with shirred bodice, abbreviated cape sleeves and full skirts. Their large picture hats of fine straw were edged in lace, pastel ribbons forming a bow in the back and falling in streamers. Miss Armstrong carried a shower bouquet of shaded mauve sweet peas and the bridesmaids similar bouquets of coral gladioli and blue delphinium.

Supporting the groom was Mr. Alan Perry as best man, and the Messrs. Stanley Richard, Michael Bird, William McCarrison and Graham McCall, brother of the bride.

The bride's former pupils of the Victoria West School, where she was a member of the teaching staff, and about 100 members of the C.G.I.T. of which the bride is director, attended the service. At the reception, which was held in the Sunday School Hall, vocal solos were rendered by Miss Edna Holdridge, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. W. H. Wilson and Mrs. W. A. Jamieson. The bride and groom stood before a fireplace banked with palms and ferns and baskets of pink roses and lilies.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. W. G. Gamble, Inspector of Oak Bay and Esquimalt schools, following which Professor E. S. Farr toasted the bride and groom. The wedding cake stood on a table by itself, and the main supper table, which was decorated by Mrs. A. S. Christie, with vases of Sweetheart roses and white candles in silver holders.

Modishly gowned in pansyorgette, Mrs. McCall completed her ensemble with a vine-shade hat and accessories, and the bridegroom's mother was in a blue and white georgette, and wore a blue hat and accessories, and a white veil. Their corsage bouquets were of gardenias.

TO LIVE IN WINNIPEG

After a motor trip to the Grand Canyon, San Francisco and Yellowstone National Park, Mr. and Mrs. Holdridge will make their home in Winnipeg, where the bridegroom is associated with the meteorological branch of Trans-Canada Airlines. The bride went away in a dusty pink suit and hat, with accessories in shades of fuchsia. Among the numerous gifts were presentations from the choir and elders of First United Church, the Sunday school and members of the C.G.I.T.

Harper, Peggy Harper, Peggy Moore, Ilene Harper, Josephine Wardell.

This Is Interesting Reading

HERE'S a funny thing! All during the winter and spring you hear people say "Oh, for some warm weather" or "I wish it was summer"—and when summer does come they are miserable, if not positively prostrated by the heat. Then they wish for cold weather again.

It was because of people like this that I invented the expression "stick to your Dr. Jackson Meal this summer". And now I'm going to tell you why—and if you are one who "suffers from the heat" you should read what I have to say.

The only cause of "wilting" in hot weather is an absence of a proper mineral balance in the body and blood. This lack of mineral balance results only from eating mineral-deficient foods. It need never be! Mineral-rich foods are plentiful and cheap, if you will only seek them out and use them steadfastly.

I always marvel at the numbers of persons who following my lectures remark "Oh, if I can only be like you when I am eighty!" yet few of them will follow the simple rules I recommend that will make them so fit that neither heat nor cold causes suffering.

It is impossible to be as fit as I am at 80 or any age if the blood is not provided with a balanced mineral supply—and this can be so easily assured by concentrating upon my mineral-rich cereals, Dr. Jackson Meal (formerly Roman Meal), Bekus-Puddy or Lishus, together with raw fruits and vegetables, and my delicious beverage Kof-Sub, which has the essential iron and other minerals upon which resistance depends.

Oh, so easy! But tell me why it is so hard to induce many otherwise sensible people to do this simple thing. Don't you be one of this set. Join the vigorous and healthy who "stick to their Dr. Jackson Meal" summer and winter and are glad of it.

Britain Sends to Canada

A REMARKABLE NEW ANTISEPTIC

'DETTOL' Offers You ALL These Qualities:

Non-Poisonous! • Non-Staining! • Several Times as Strong as Pure Carbolic Acid! (Hygienic Laboratory Test) Gentle to Human Tissue! • Agreeable Odour!

FOR YEARS medical science faced this problem! Antiseptics powerful enough to kill germs and prevent infection usually destroyed skin tissue and delayed healing, while those harmless to the skin were often ineffective against germs. Then came 'DETTOL', the remarkable British Antiseptic with several times the strength of pure carbolic acid, by the Hygienic Laboratory Test. The British medical profession quickly approved—for 'DETTOL' is deadly to germs, yet gentle to human tissue, non-poisonous, non-staining—and of agreeable odour.

Readily accepted by Canadian hospitals and doctors especially for use in maternity work, 'DETTOL' is now being made available for general home use. Your druggist can supply it.

Keep a bottle of 'DETTOL' Antiseptic in your medicine cabinet, for use on CUTS • BITES • ABRASIONS • SORE THROAT • ALL PERSONAL USES.

Mary Pickford Talks Production Plans

Returns to United States Full of Ideas for Pictures

NEW YORK (CP) — Toronto-born Mary Pickford, still as keen about movies as when she was first playing in them a quarter of a century ago, has returned to the United States from a pleasure trip to Europe full of new picture-production projects.

The Normandie, which brought her back to these shores yesterday, also brought Elsa Lancaster, who in private life is Mrs. Charles Laughton, and Myrna Loy.

These three ladies of the screen have all sorts of plans for the coming months. Miss Loy has another "Thin Man" picture to do. Miss Lancaster expects to spend a quiet summer in Hollywood watching her husband screen "The Hunchback," and drawing up plans to play in "The Admirable Crichton," opposite him.

Miss Pickford can't quite make up her mind what picture she will produce, but she has a number of hands. For instance she owns the rights to that old-time thriller "The Bat."

Miss Pickford is still the win some "Little Mary" of the old silent screen days, only a little Mary who has grown up. She has no plans to return to acting, "although it is always a possibility." All her thoughts seem to run in costs and plans for producing films. She would like to emulate the producers of "Pygmalion," who surprised the film folk by doing a picture that costs less than $500,000. In fact, she remembers the time they did one for $10,000, and it included her salary and the whole cast's traveling expenses. But the movies have come a long way since Mary, in pigtail or otherwise was "America's Sweetheart."

Miss Lancaster still can't forget the reception she got in Canada last spring, and she had a "grand time" in Montreal. She has a fond spot for one newspaper in Montreal because it wrote an editorial about her criticizing Toronto, where the Musicians' Union opposed her making a personal appearance. "I don't often get editorials written about me," she said.

She's quite frank about herself and Charles. "He's not the lover's young dream type, you know, and so doesn't get many happy endings in his films. Neither of us are conventional types. I guess he only gets a happy ending when I play opposite him. I'm his one happy ending!"

Miss Lancaster said she enjoyed writing her book about her husband, even if he didn't like the experience. And she says she hopes to write many more books, but not until she's finished with the stage, maybe after she's 50.

Miss Loy in person is very much the same Miss Loy you see on the screen, the personification of a "good sport." Her smile is even more winning when you get it three-dimensionally. Life for her these days, she remarked seems to be just one "Thin Man" picture after another. There's a new one with William Powell to come just as soon as her present vacation is over. She admitted she enjoys doing them, since she and William play such "nice people," but she is hoping there'll be a few other roles before her contract—which still has six years to run—expires.

'What I Might Have Been Children'

LONDON (CP) — Two types of parents, those who try to relive their lives through their children and those who behave childishly themselves, were roundly denounced by delegates to the London conference on maternity and child welfare and by an Anglican clergyman.

Dr. Grace Calver, physician of the children's department of the Tavistock Clinic, said:

"Many parents have a feeling of inferiority and disappointment at their own achievements in life. The parents fantasize what they might have done and what they feel they would have done if only their luck had not been against them."

"Then they project these fantasies on to their own children and try to live out their lives again through the lives of their children."

"This puts a terrific burden on the children. These parents never see them as individuals, but always merely as reflections of themselves. They are, therefore, all the time criticizing the children."

Novel Note for Home Wedding Refreshments

The girl who sleeps with a piece of wedding cake under her pillow will dream of her future husband. That's a belief that's many centuries old, probably you've tested it yourself. Even if you are an amateur cook, it's easy to make a handsomely frosted wedding cake that'll be an inspiration to any romantic dreamer. Here's a failure-proof recipe for a luscious magic fruit cake made with sweetened condensed milk. It takes only a few minutes to prepare, but it's always rich and fruity and delicious. When the cake is cold, cut it into small pieces, cover them with butter frosting, decorate with wedding bells or hearts made of chocolate frosting in a pastry tube, and pile them up in a pyramid for the guests to eat. Don't forget samples for the guests to take home. You can buy the tiny boxes, plain or initialed. Cut diminutive pieces of cake to fit them, wrap each in waxed paper, and tuck in its small box. Then pile them up on a tray or a table for the guests to take.

MAGIC FRUIT CAKE

1 1/2 cups (1 can) sweetened condensed milk.
1 cup chopped walnut meats.
1/2 pound (3 cups) shredded coconut.
1 pound (2 cups) pitted dates, coarsely chopped.

Thoroughly blend sweetened condensed milk, chopped walnut meats, shredded coconut and dates, which have been coarsely chopped. Pack in a greased loaf pan (8x5x3 inches). Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees Fahrenheit) 25 minutes, or until brown. Remove from pan and allow to cool thoroughly. Cut 'into thin slices.

BUTTER FROSTING

2/3 cup sweetened condensed milk.
4 tablespoons butter.
1 tablespoon vanilla.
2 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' (4X) sugar.
Cream sweetened condensed milk and butter thoroughly. Add vanilla, mixing well. (Other flavorings may be used.) Add confectioner's sugar gradually, beating until smooth and light in color.

ABERHART WOULD BLOCK FEDERAL ACT

Individual Lenders Ignored in Mortgage Bank Measure, He Says

EDMONTON (CP)—Prime Minister King should announce at an early date whether the Central Mortgage Bank Act ever will be proclaimed, Premier Aberhart asserted in the fourth and last of a series of statements dealing with the legislation passed just before the last session of Parliament concluded.

The Alberta's premier's concluding statement dealing with effect of the legislation on the individual lender and other creditors such as merchants, doctors and hospitals charged the individual lender is ignored in the act.

"In fact the only capacity in which the act considers an individual is as a debtor—someone to be exploited and controlled," said the statement, issued yesterday.

"Only money lending institutions can become members of the central bank and gain advantages at the expense of taxpayers," Mr. Aberhart declared. The individual lender will have "to bear the entire loss himself. In addition, as a taxpayer, he will have the unavoidable privilege of subsidizing the loss of the large institutions."

The Premier said he hoped Canadians would "express their righteous indignation at this iniquitous attempt to further enslave them to the money power and demand that the Central Mortgage Bank Act be not proclaimed."

Gardiner Says Freer Trade Will Aid West

Agriculture Minister Sees Need for Co-operation in Marketing

SASKATOON (CP)—Unswerving support for the policy of free trade and application of co-operative principles to the marketing of Canada's agricultural products, for which the Liberal Party stood, was expressed last night by Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Federal Minister of Agriculture, in addressing a dinner meeting of the fifth annual convention of the Saskatchewan Young Liberal Association.

He outlined in detail the legislation brought down at the last session of Parliament with respect to protection of the western Canada farmer and of western agriculture generally.

"The only way in which conditions in western Canada can now be improved is by extension of the principles of free trade, for which the Liberal Party stands," he said.

He asked support of farmers, elevator companies and business generally in the selling of Canada's wheat on the markets of the world.

The government realized unemployment was the most important problem before Canada today and he said that through application of the policy of promotion of employment through surviving Canadian industry at home and trade abroad, the government was bringing certain solution to this problem.

In viewing trade policies of the Liberal and other governments at Ottawa, Mr. Gardiner drew the conclusion that free trade had done more to alleviate unemployment in the nation than any other thing.

But the Liberal government had done more for the alleviation of unemployment in Canada than increasing the nation's trade with other lands. Schemes and plans whereby men were placed on farms and absorbed in the forestry industry had been enforced, and more than half of the 600,000 former unemployed had been absorbed in industry.

The Agriculture Minister attacked the movements opposed to the old line parties "initiated by Hon. W. D. Herridge and George McCullagh."

Referring to Mr. McCullagh's Leadership League, he said:

"If he used the revenues of Canada in the manner he has used that of one millionaire, this country would go broke fast."

NANAIMO DEBATES PIPE LINE RELIEF

NANAIMO—Engineer A. G. Graham submitted a lengthy report to the city council last night on work progress on the South Forks pipe line, advocating some of the work remaining be done by contract.

The council debated the matter for two hours, with the result that adjournment was taken until Wednesday evening, when the motion of Alderman J. Kerr, seconded by Alderman D. Knox, will be voted on. The motion is: "That beginning August 1 the council stop all relief work on the water project and put it on a straight works scheme basis."

MOTOR EXPERTS WERE RIGHT—

This Repair-shop Survey* proves the case against old-type oils

SO OUR REFINERS MADE A NEW KIND OF OIL—THE 1939 "RPM"

For months Motor Experts have been saying that old-type oils make trouble in modern tight-fitting engines.

Oils once generally favored simply can't cope with modern operating conditions. They deposit gum, carbon and varnish that reduce engine efficiency. In short, the motor gets sluggish—costly!

That's why Motor Experts insist a NEW KIND of oil is needed—badly needed.

But our refiners were already at work on this problem. They started at the beginning. They discarded all old-type oil conceptions. They decided on an entirely new refining process. And they backed that new process with a new $3,500,000 plant.

Now we have that NEW KIND of motor oil—the 1939 "RPM",—a NEW KIND of oil that does not "break down" under high temperatures. It stays clean. It keeps the engine clean. And it gives mileage equal to or better than any other oil, regardless of source. Quite naturally, too, the use of "RPM" maintains high engine performance—maximum power and low fuel consumption.

Facts are facts. "RPM"—the NEW KIND of motor oil—gives you smoother operation and a cleaner engine than any lubricants you have known, at any price.

*How oils, until recently satisfactory, are trouble-makers in modern motors is proved by a newly completed Repair-Shop Survey, by an independent research company. These experts found that in modern cars brought in for repairs, 77% of the oil-return passages in oil rings are clogged with gum (the first stage in varnish formation), sludge, carbon, and other deposits.

WE BREAK A TRADITION

By tradition, Standard Oil advertising is conservative—it understates the merits of the products advertised. Because a new kind of motor oil is so necessary today and because this NEW KIND of motor oil, "RPM", is so clearly superior to any old-type oil, we're going to do it full justice—but no more than justice—by saying to you—"RPM" is

TODAY'S NO. 1 MOTOR OIL "BUY!"

HE CAN'T BEGIN to match Lou Gehrig's perennial durability, but Augie Galan, Chicago Cub outfielder, does not take a back seat to the Iron Horse when it comes to playing with out-and-out physical liabilities. . . . Augie, who in seasons past has undergone an operation on his eyes, and has had two twisted knees, now is performing with his leg in a steel brace and his right elbow swollen nearly twice its size. . . . Yet he leads the Cubs in runs batted in and is regarded as one of the National League's stand-out fly-chasers.

An enterprising salesman cleaned up on the Pacific Coast when he sold 300 sets of racing plates allegedly worn at one time or another by Seabiscuit. . . . Incidentally, a statistician has figured out that a $10 bet on each start of Seabiscuit or War Admiral during 1938 would have brought a loss of 85 cents.

Joe Gordon's brother John is playing third for the Bellingham club in the Western International League . . . but the New York Yankees don't own him.

Ziggy Sears, National League umpire, was well paid for his son's contract with the Yankee farm system. . . . The younger Sears is with Norfolk. . . . Ziggy would not let him go to a National League club because it might prove embarrassing to him later on as an umpire.

Gus Eriksen, who missed by an eyelash of stroking his third Washington jockey shell to victory at Poughkeepsie, may get the job of coaching Sweden's Olympic crew. . . . Harold Anson Bruce, who tutored Austria's Olympic track and field forces in 1936, has been hired in a similar capacity by Hungary for next year's carnival.

Al Schacht, clown prince of Baseball, already has covered 20,000 miles in his itinerary of comedy acts and has been in practically every state of the U.S.

"It's a mighty tough job but it's paying," says Schacht. "I've played before more than 240,000 fans since May 8. . . . and inasmuch as I work on a guarantee and percentage I'm doing all right financially."

"And it's a lot better than coaching at third base," he adds.

Schacht usually finishes his act about 10 at night and starts driving to the next town on his schedule. He drives until 10 the following morning, stops for seven hours' sleep and starts on his way again.

He went from Amarillo, Tex., to Hutchinson, Kan., in one jump. One night he was in Fort Worth, Tex., and the next evening in Topeka, Kan.

His longest jump was from St. Paul to Hollywood.

Claiming breach of contract, Jack Roper, veteran California heavyweight, fired Dick Donald, his manager.

Before his bout with Gunnar Barlund, Roper went ahead and did his negotiating with the promoter.

"How much do you want?" the promoter asked.

"How about $750?" said Roper, and the promoter agreed.

Then Roper discovered that previous to being "fired," Donald had arranged a verbal contract for $2,000. But having signed the contract all the fighter-electrician got was the $750.

Veteran Eliminated From United States P.G.A. Battle By J. Ryan 1 Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Defending champion Paul Runyan of White Plains, N.Y., seeking his third title, and little Ben Hogan, also of White Plains, led the way into the second round of match play in the National Professional Golfers' Association championship today at the Pomonok Country Club.

Hogan, one of the four co-medalists at the end of the qualifying round yesterday, continued his brilliant scoring in playing 12 holes in four under par to shut out Steve Zappe of Springfield, Ohio, 7 and 6. Runyan, after being all even to the turn, eliminated veteran Mortie Dutra of Royal Oak, Mich., 3 and 1.

Dick Metz of Lake Forest, Ill., runner-up for the United States open title in 1938, defeated Pat Cincilli, North Tarryton, N.Y., 7 and 6.

THIRTY-FOOT PUTT

Birdie finishes by Billy Burke, former open champion from Cleveland, and Herman Barron, gave them victory by close margins over Jim Foulis of Hinsdale, Ill., and slugging Jimmy Thomson, respectively. Burke ran down a 30-foot putt for his three on the 18th to win, 1 up, and Barron finished 2.3 to top Thomson, 2 up.

Runyan's next rival will be Frank Champ of Bedford, Ind., who took a 1 up decision over Fay Coleman, Culver City, Calif., on a one-under par 71. In the first extra-hole match, veteran Abe Espinosa nosed out Tony Joy of Youngstown, Ohio, to win a birdie three on the 19th to draw the berth opposite Hogan.

Gentleman Gene Sarazen, the Connecticut gentleman farmer who had won the title three times, was bounced out by Jack Ryan, husky veteran professional from Louisville, Ky., 1 up.

Henry Picard, Hershey, Pa., stylist, played the first nine in 31, four under par, and cut two more shots off standard figures on the next five holes to whip Earl Martin of Inglewood, Calif., 6 and 4.

Ky Laffoon, another of the co-medalists, beat out Dick Shoemaker of Grafton, Pa., 3 and 2.

Another round was being played this afternoon.

Alice Marble to Try Movie Career

HOLLYWOOD, Cal. (AP)—Alice Marble, who plays tennis well enough to win Wimbledon's historic cup, and who sings well enough to win praise from New York's night clubs, soon will try a movie career.

Frank Orsetti, Hollywood agent, said he had signed a contract for her, but that it forbids any role as a tennis player. Her acting will not interfere with her amateur status as a tennis player, he added.

Canadian Champion Fighter Knocked Out

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Connecting with a terrific right to the chin that sent his opponent spinning across the ring, Verne Bybee of Ogden, Utah, knocked out Davey Paul of Toronto, Canadian featherweight champion, in the fifth round of a 10-round match last night.

Each fighter weighed 126 pounds.

Bybee, who lost to the stocky Canadian two weeks ago on a disqualification, scored frequently with hard rights to the side of the head, and won the first two rounds by slight margins. The third was even and Bybee won the fourth easily.

Kayak II Greatest

Trainer Tom Smith Thinks Argentine Horse Outstanding Racer of All Time

LOS ANGELES (AP)—If Kayak II is successful in his quest for the Hollywood Gold Cup and its $50,000 July 22, owner C. S. Howard will head him east for a whirlwind campaign designed to test trainer Tom Smith's belief that the Argentine star is the greatest horse of all time.

Kayak's current earnings are $117,000. Victory in the Gold Cup, a not unthinkable repeat win in the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap next winter, coupled with eastern victories this summer, and Kayak would be right up there to challenge Sun Beau's all-time money earning mark.

The usually silent Smith is loquacious about Kayak. "I think he has a better chance than Seabiscuit to beat the Sun Beau mark," says the veteran trainer.

"You see, Kayak is a sound horse, while we had trouble with Seabiscuit from the day we bought him. Kayak hasn't a blemish, except where he nicked himself last spring at Tanforan, and all that remains of the injury is a scar."

CANADIAN TENNIS TEAM IN WORKOUT

Prepare for Davis Cup Series With Cuban Players at Havana

HAVANA (CP)—Island tennis fans forebore their customary siesta yesterday to watch the newly-arrived Canadian Davis Cup team work out in preparation for the matches with Cuba starting July 19.

Bruce Hall, Phil Pearson and Bill Pedlar of Toronto and Ellis Tarsis of Montreal, declared they were unaffected by the heat, but they appeared to tire rapidly. They treated the gallery, however, to a fine display of fast tennis in the practice, their first in Cuba.

The National Sports Commission announced Cuba, compelling for the Davis Cup for the first time since 1935, will use three players—Jose Aguerro, Ricardo Morales and Lorenzo Nardase. The team is made up of veterans of tournament play who have had previous Davis Cup competition.

The Canadian four are by no means internationalists, but are being groomed to blossom into a high-class team in three or four years.

Pearson and Pedlar, products of Vancouver's public courts, are 19 and 18 respectively, while Hall is 23 and Tarsis 24.

MIXED FOURSOMES

A twilight mixed foursomes will be held at the Uplands Golf Club on July 18. This event will be open to all members of the club, who, in making up their foursomes may invite a member of another club.

Following the tournament, which will be a nine-hole event, over the first nine, a buffet supper will be served in the clubhouse. The supper will be followed by a dance from 9 until midnight.

Canadian Marksmen With Leaders In Bisley

Senior Boxla Clash Tonight

Conservatives and James Bay to Battle at Willows Auditorium

Coach Gus Munroe's green-shirted Conservative stick-handlers will be gunning for a share of the first berth with Manager Ted Menzies' James Bay outfit tonight at the Willows auditorium when these two squads clash in a senior game that will highlight a two-game lacrosse program.

At the present time Bays are riding on top with five wins in six games and Conservatives and Aler Service are tied in the second spot with four wins in six games.

Actually there is little to choose between the three teams left in the senior boxla circuit, and followers of the game are anticipating some really hot competition before the city champions are crowned.

The opening game tonight at 7:30 will bring together two young squads, and the feature attraction will start at 8:45.

Plans for the appearance of two Vancouver teams here next Saturday for a mainland league game have fallen through; W. C. Moresby, chairman of the Victoria Box Lacrosse Commission, announced today.

The letter notifying the commissioner that the teams would be unable to make the trip to the capital city this week, noted, however, that this arrangement could be carried out during the latter part of August.

All-star Defenceman Completing Arrangements To Take Over Springfield

BOSTON (CP)—Having completed a satisfactory arrangement with Boston Bruins, Eddie Shore, all-star defenceman, began to clean up today the details which remain before he acquires sole possession of the Springfield Club in the International American Hockey League.

Shore, according to a joint statement by President Weston Adams and Manager Art Ross, has signed a contract to play in all of the Bruins' home games next season and also in all playoff games at home and abroad.

After fulfilling that contract, he will be declared a free agent on or before May 1, which will enable him to play for his Springfield team during the 1940-41 season.

Her father, once well known as a fancy skater in western Canada, is star of a company of English and Canadian skaters, presenting a novelty ice show "Switzerland." Indoor skating on artificial ice is new for Australia.

HARVEY WINNER OVER J. McAVOY

British Light-heavyweight Champion Given Tough Time in Title Fight

LONDON (CP)—Len Harvey, British and Empire light-heavyweight champion, won a 15-round decision over Jock McAvoy last night in a bout billed for the world light-heavyweight championship.

After surviving a beating in the 14th round, Harvey caught McAvoy in his corner in the final round and beat him badly with a series of hard right crosses. The champion was wobbling in the 14th and only his big-weight advantage enabled him to score heavily in the 15th. Harvey weighed 175 pounds to McAvoy's 167.

The bout was designated as a world title affair after John Henry Lewis was refused permission to fight Harvey because of his failing eyesight and the British Boxing Board of Control decided it would no longer recognize Lewis as world champion.

After the championship bout Eddie Phillips, 189½, knocked out Jack Doyle, 218½, Irish boxer singer, in the first round with a hard right cross to the jaw.

Adanacs Whip Burrards

New Westminster Club Moves Into First-place Tie in Mainland Boxla

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP)—Thirteen was Vancouver Burrards' unlucky number last night. Playing their 13th game of the current intercity box lacrosse season, the league leaders were pushed far enough aside at the top of the standings ladder to make room for New Westminster's yellow-sweatered Adanacs, last year's western Canadian champions.

The home-towners clambered into a tie for first place with the Vancouver visitors by a 19 to 13 score. The two are now six points above Salmonbellies, another New Westminster team, and a dozen points ahead of the fourth place Richmond Farmers.

North Shore Indians are still in the cellar, without a win in 14 starts.

Playing the 35th game of the season, both teams fielded their strongest forces and displayed

Whitehead Tied for Top In St. George's

Toronto Shot Scores 74 Out of 75 in One of Classic Competitions

BISLEY CAMP, Eng. (CP)—Corporal H. D. Whitehead of the Queen's Own Rifles, Toronto, tied with two United Kingdom marksmen today for the lead in the first stage of the St. George's Challenge Vase, one of the classic service rifle matches of the Empire meeting of the National Rifle Association.

Whitehead and the two Englishmen posted scores of 74 out of a possible 75, firing 15 shots at the 300 yard range. They paced the field of 740 marksmen striving for places in the second and final stage of the match, which will be fired at the 900-yard range Saturday.

The three leaders in the first stage of the St. Georges will shoot off tomorrow afternoon for the bronze cross.

Behind Whitehead among Canadians in the St. George's came Lieut. C. F. Kennedy of Hildren, N.S., and C. M. Harry Rusk of Ottawa with 71's. Scores of 70 were

Suggests Saanich Supply City Water

Reeve A. G. Lambrick Proposes Formation of Greater Victoria Board

Reeve A. G. Lambrick, Saanich, suggested to Mayor Andrew McGavin today that the city appoint a special committee to attend a meeting to study formation of a Greater Victoria Water Board with a view to possible use of Saanich water by the city.

The proposal was received with some skepticism by the mayor.

The suggestion was advanced following return of the Saanich engineer from a visit to Washington where he investigated use of wells similar to that being sunk by Saanich for municipal supply.

The reeve further noted continued repairs were required on the Sooke supply line and said development of the Saanich system might provide enough water for Victoria.

Mayor McGavin was of the opinion Saanich had insufficient water to give Victoria an adequate service and stated the costs of building reservoirs and installing pumping equipment would probably be prohibitive. He believed the Sooke supply was adequate to meet all Victoria's needs.

Elliott for leave to apply for an extension of time in which to seek leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada from a judgment of the Court of Appeal in the case of Jawala Singh was refused by Mr. Justice Sloan in chambers late last week, it was learned at the Courthouse today.

A second application for a stay of the order for deportation was also dismissed.

Want Seaplanes In City Harbor

Mayor McGavin Asks Committee to Renew Efforts to Have Base Here

The City Council's business and trade development committee was asked to renew its efforts to secure use of the Inner Harbor as a seaplane landing base in a letter addressed to it by Mayor Andrew McGavin today.

"I beg to suggest to the business and trade development committee that further efforts be made to obtain permission for the use of the Inner Harbor as a landing place for seaplanes," the mayor's communication stated.

"I realize that in the past many objections were raised to the use of the harbor for this purpose, but the people of Canada are becoming more air-minded every day and it may now be possible to obtain the necessary permission as I feel sure this would greatly assist in the development of air travel to and from our city," the letter added.

Urges Greek Line For Modern Dress

Designers Should Study Classical Statues, J. Kyle Tells Teachers

Modern dress designers could well take lessons from the simple flowing lines of the drapery in Greek sculpture, John Kyle told teachers attending the Summer School of Education during a lecture on Greek and Roman art this morning.

The lecture was the second of a series on national art forms Mr. Kyle is giving at the summer school's extra-curricular morning hours.

Drawing attention to the cleanliness of the lines in Greek statuary, he said: "Art is never confused. If you see anything confused it cannot be art, whatever the fashion is."

Mr. Kyle contrasted the architecture of the Greeks, who used their buildings as a vehicle for art, with that of the Romans who were engineers and treated art as something rather effeminate.

The three styles which the Greeks developed for their pillared architecture — the Doric, Ionic and Corinthian — were so perfect that nobody had ever been able to improve on them, he said, though many, including the Romans, had tried and had only succeeded in producing artistic solecisms.

In the same way the Greeks had discovered that the elliptical line of the conic section was the most perfect curve, and had proved it with their vases.

Mr. Kyle spoke in the auditorium of Victoria High School and illustrated his lecture with a series of slides, many of which were concerned with stories from Greek mythology.

Convicted on a charge of transporting potatoes not marked with labels in contravention of the Natural Products Marketing Act, Lee Jop was fined $25 and $250 costs in the City Police Court this morning.

IN TOWN TODAY

On their way across Canada by bicycle, 19 young people from the United States are in town today. They arrived from Seattle yesterday and will leave tomorrow for Vancouver.

Dorothy Smith of San Francisco, is leader of the group. Her assistant is Eyril Riste, a University of Washington student who is president and organizer of the Campus Hostel Group. Wherever possible on their trip across the country the young people will stop at youth hostels.

Two personally conducted tour parties came to Victoria today to see the sights. One was a Marneil group, in charge of Mrs. Louise Ege, with 53 persons and the other a Burkett tour, with 12 persons, in charge of Howard Loggreen. Both arrived from Seattle at noon and will proceed to Vancouver at midnight.

Two parties of ladies are at the Empress Hotel today, during the course of visits to the Pacific northwest. In one group were: Miss C. Nagel and Mrs. E. Nagel of Hudson, Wisconsin, and Mrs. M. R. Svendsen and Mrs. A. L. Graves of Spokane.

In the other group were: Miss E. Fleming, Boston; Miss K. T. Sellen, Natick, Mass.; Miss K. T. Breen, Boston; Miss H. D. McHardy, Milton, Mass.; and Miss B. Coleman, Boston.

Astronomer at Joint Luncheon

Kiwanis and Canadian Clubs Told Religion And Science at Peace

The much-used statement that religion and science were two fighting factors in the world today was false, John A. Marsh, M.P. for Ontario and internationally known lecturer on astronomy, told members of the Kiwanis and Canadian Clubs at a joint luncheon in the Empress Hotel today.

The statement was quite true with men of religion who were not true thinkers and scientists who did not really study their work, he continued.

Mr. Marsh has spent 15 years of his life lecturing on astronomy and scientific subjects. He has done much prominent work in solar and lunar photography. Pictures he took of the 1932 total eclipse of the sun were claimed to be the most perfect record of the event.

The speaker paid tribute to the Victoria Centre, Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, whose activities, he said, were watched with interest by branches in the east. Mr. Marsh is a past-president of the society, Hamilton Centre.

The address, illustrated with slides, dealt mainly with the sun and moon. He showed his audience the immensity of the universe and how small a part of it the world was.

The sun was the centre of the solar system. It was so large that its set of planets, of which the world was one, would have to be multiplied 360 times to make up its equivalent. The sun was a blazing star nearly 1,000,000 miles in diameter. Mr. Marsh showed slides of the flames leaping from the body.

He dealt briefly with sun spots which appeared in cycles of every 11 years. They appeared to have effect on electrical storms and radio. The moon had little or no influence on the weather, he mentioned in passing.

The moon was well known to modern astronomers. It had no life and was a rugged, inhospitable place. A number of photographs taken through powerful telescopes carried out his statement.

Harold Diggon thanked the speaker on behalf of the members of both clubs. Austin Curtis, Kiwanis president, opened the meeting and later turned it over to Commissioner T. W. S. Parsons of the Canadian Club.

Body Recovered

BREMERTON, Wash. (AP) — Searchers found the body of Rodney Burris, 36, of Centralia, on the Hood Canal beach at St. Avis Bay, yesterday. He drowned Sunday night when a small skiff capsized.

Man Beaten and Left On Roadside

Clifford J. Turpin, Mayne Island, Attacked Between Beer Parlors

Clifford J. Turpin, a visitor here from Mayne Island, reported to city police last night he was beaten and left on a roadway by four young men whom he met in a beer parlor.

Police of the city and Esquimalt were investigating the report today in an effort to locate the attackers from descriptions furnished by Turpin.

Turpin told police he left the Gorge Hotel with four young men for the Dugout beer parlor on Esquimalt Lagoon.

Turpin said the car stopped en route and one of the men turned to him and said "what have you got?" then all four started to beat him. He said they took nothing from him.

He was left on the road after the beating and later picked up by an unknown motorist who took him to the Dugout. From there he received a lift into town.

He suffered a cut on the cheek near his left eye and other bruises which were treated by police.

Premier Back From Exposition

B.C. Leader Warmly Feted In California

Deeply appreciating the warmth of the welcome given him in the south, Premier Pattullo returned to Victoria today after 10 days in California, where he represented the Dominion on July 1, Canada Day, at the San Francisco exposition.

The Premier returned by plane from Los Angeles to Seattle. Going south he traveled by car with Mrs. Pattullo, roaring through each state with a police escort.

Although he did not have time to visit all parts of the fair, the Premier said he was much impressed with the exposition, adding that British Columbia's exhibit was as fine as any of the western states.

As another incident cementing the friendship of Canada and the United States, the Premier's visit was the occasion for numerous functions and he was widely feted.

The Union Jack floated over the exposition buildings and the band played O Canada as he arrived at the fair on July 1 and stepped out to inspect a guard of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. A special escort of 36 mounted police accompanied his car to the federal building.

He was tendered an official luncheon by the State of California, San Francisco City and the exposition, at which 150 guests were present, including Governor C. L. Olson; Paul D. Butler, British consul-general; L. W. Cutler, exposition president, and Walter Adams, president of the British Empire Societies of California.

In the afternoon he inspected the B.C. exhibit and was taken on a tour of Treasure Island, watching the U.S. fleet pass in review. From the reviewing stand in the Court of Nations he took the salute from a parade and later addressed an assembly of about 4,000. After attending the horse show in the evening, the Premier went to Stockton the following day to address the Canadian Legion of California at their annual meeting. On July 3 he was tendered a luncheon by the consul-general and in the evening entertained the Victoria Girls' Drill team.

Fighting at Auto Plant in Michigan

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Disorder broke out at the gates of the Pontiac Fisher Body plant today for the second straight day in connection with a Congress of Industrial Organization-United Automobile Workers' strike, and local police appealed to state police for aid. Five men were taken into custody.

This morning's fighting started when an attempt was made to carry production workers into the plant in automobiles.

Police said the U.A.W.-C.I.O. pickets hurled stones at the cars and attempted to overturn some of them. The officers estimated about 30 cars had attempted to enter the plant in a body, and about half of them got through the picket line.

The strike was called by the U.A.W.-C.I.O. in a demand for an agreement covering skilled workers. Then General Motors Corporation plants are affected.

Protest Dewar Move On Street Cars

Right of Alderman, As Street Car Operator, To Vote Challenged

A strong protest against the action of Alderman R. A. C. Dewar in supporting continuation of street car service in Victoria, in spite of the failure of the last plebiscite to carry a sufficient majority to assure retention of the cars, is contained in a letter from E. H. M. Foot, received at the City Hall today.

Mr. Foot, stating he has been engaged by the Class A Drivers' Association of Vancouver Island, says his clients object to Alderman Dewar's support of the move to secure validating legislation for an agreement between the city and the B.C. Electric Railway Company Ltd., since the alderman is, according to the letter, personally concerned in the matter as a street car operator.

The communication states the alderman should refrain from voting on the question and from presenting motions in its support.

DROWNING INQUEST AT DUNCAN FRIDAY

An inquest following the drowning of Hazel and George Robbins in the Cowichan River Sunday, has been set for next Friday at Duncan by Col. J. H. Boyd, Lake Cowichan coronor.

The two young people, son and daughter of George Robbins, C.N.R. section foreman, were drowned when George jumped into the river to save his sister when she got into difficulties.

The double tragedy marked the third death of its kind in the Robbins family, another child having been drowned six or seven years ago on the mainland.

DAIRY HOUSE LOST IN FIRE

A dairy house on the farm of H. F. Creed, Keating Cross Road, was destroyed by fire, which at times threatened a barn and house nearby, between 7 and 8 this morning.

Speedy action on the part of the Saanich Fire Department, which had a long drive to reach the scene of the blaze, saved the house and barn.

The loss, placed at approximately $400, was partly covered by insurance.

LOW WHEAT PRICES TEMPER PROSPECTS

Enthusiasm Over Bumper Canadian Crop Affected By Slump

WINNIPEG (CP) — Enthusiasm over the prospects of a bumper harvest from prairie Canada's spring wheat fields was dimmed slightly today because world wheat values continued their backward march.

Wheat futures prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange are at their lowest level in six years. At Chicago quotations have skidded to new lows for six months, while export prices for Canadian wheat, c.i.f. Liverpool, have slumped more than five cents to eight-year low points.

Nevertheless, prairie Canada farmers watched hopefully the excellent progress of their 1939 crop, cheered by the knowledge that no matter how much world wheat values drop they will receive 70 cents a bushel for No. 1 northern wheat at Fort William.

The 70-cent figure was the basis set for the guaranteed initial payment approved at the last session of Parliament. The dwindling world figure, therefore, will be the government's problem when it seeks a market this fall.

In all three provinces wheat is in the shot blade or headed out, with Manitoba growth slightly in the lead. Alberta wheat is about 18 inches in height, Saskatchewan 20 and Manitoba 26 to 42 inches.

Strong, healthy stands are developing in most areas. Grasshopper damage has been reported only from scattered points, with generous rains, however, growth of grass and poisoning campaigns credited with checking the menace. Little rust damage has been encountered.

Vancouver Police Patrol Bridges

VANCOUVER (CP) — Police officials announced today they would continue indefinitely patrol of bridges, railway lines and other key points in the Grandview district, where several mysterious dynamite blasts have caused minor damage during the past eight days.

Meanwhile they continued investigation of reports a man was seen leaving the Gravelly Street vicinity the night before a dynamite cache was found. Officers discovered the dynamite and fuse last Saturday.

Police also checked a report two youths were seen running from the interurban line which was slightly damaged by a blast last Wednesday.

No trace of reported explosions near Dunbar and 35th Avenue has been discovered.

2,000 Battle Fires In Colorado Rockies

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — More than 2,000 men, most of them from Civilian Conservation Corps camps, today battled in heat and smoke to control fires in tinder dry forests of the Rocky Mountains.

The worst of the fires broke out yesterday in the Roosevelt National Forest 50 miles northwest of Fort Collins, and a shifting wind spread it through nearly 6,000 acres by midnight.

When the wind turned from the east to the northeast, 75 loggers were forced to abandon the Whistler, Waller and American Lumber Company camps and flee to safety on a ridge beyond the fire zone.

C.C.F. Alberta Convention

EDMONTON (CP) — Four hundred delegates are expected to attend the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation provincial convention to be held here July 31, August 1 and 2, it was stated by party officials today.

Delegates are being chosen at constituency conventions now under way in various parts of the province, the basis being 10 delegates for each provincial riding.

C. Grant MacNeil, M.P. for North Vancouver, is expected to be the principal guest speaker at the convention.

Sir Wilfred Grenfell To Return North

NEW YORK (AP) — Sir Wilfred Grenfell, famed as "the Good Samaritan of Labrador," will return soon to the northern territory where he spent 40 years serving the needs of fisherfolk, Indians and Eskimos. Ill health interrupted his missionary work in 1934.

The Grenfell Association of America announced today that Sir Wilfred, 74, would sail next Monday from Montreal for St. Anthony, headquarters in the territory for the Grenfell Social service which includes a chain of hospitals, schools and co-operative stores.

He will be accompanied by his daughter, Rosamond. Lady Grenfell, who long shared his labors, died last year.

INQUIRIES ACT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the first meeting of the Commission directed to me as Commissioner under and pursuant to the Inquiry Act being Chapter 99 of the Statutes of Canada 1927 to inquire into:

(a) Whether or not it is in the public interest that trap-nets for the capture of salmon should continue to be authorized in the Sooke area, British Columbia, i.e., between Beachy Head and Bonbride Point along the southwest coast of Vancouver Island, such investigation to have regard to all such points as in the judgment of the Commission require consideration, and without restricting the generality of the foregoing to include the following:

(1) Nature of waters, whether specially exposed or otherwise;

(2) Tidal and current conditions;

(3) Unusual phosphorescence, if any, in water;

(4) Proximity of international boundary;

(5) Fog, prevalence of sharks, etc.

(c) The significance of continued operation of trap-nets fishing in the Sooke area in relation to the possible re-introduction of trap-nets in the State of Washington.

(d) Whether or not unemployment is accentuated by the operation of trap-nets in the Sooke area.

(e) Whether or not it is in the public interest that purse-seining for the capture of pine salmon and "late" sockeye salmon should continue to be authorized in that portion of the Gulf of Georgia lying within a straight line drawn from Point Grey to the south end of Valdes Island and a straight line drawn from the latter point connecting with and continuing along the international boundary on the 49th parallel of north latitude to the mainland, such investigation to have regard to all such points as in the judgment of the Commission require consideration, and without restricting the generality of the foregoing to include the following:

(1) Whether or not the purse-seining permitted is unduly destructive to immature salmon or other fish;

(2) Whether or not the extent of varieties of salmon, other than pink and "late" sockeye, caught by purse-seining there is of significance in relation to the livelihood of earnings of gill-netters;

(3) Whether or not purse-seining there has the effect of breaking up schools of salmon in such a way as to be detrimental to the interests of the gill-netters.

(d) The feasibility of the successful operation of gill-nets in the waters where seining is being allowed;

(e) Whether or not a superior pack and consequently a greater economic return is being secured from the catch taken by purse-seining there than would otherwise be obtained.

Will be held at the Court House, Victoria, B.C., on Monday, the 17th day of July, A.D. 1939, at the hour of 10.30 o'clock in the forenoon.

Vancouver Shipping

VANCOUVER — The Vancouver Grain Exchange and the Merchants Exchange were closed early yesterday to allow members to attend the funeral of Hugh J. Westman, grain operator in Vancouver and for many years manager of the United Grain Growers Terminal here, who died last week.

The office staff at Canadian Pacific's Pier C presented G. L. McCrea, retired superintendent, with a set of electric razors, a wallet and a key purse, last Saturday.

Four Royal Navy veterans—all men who fought in the bombardment of Alexandria—celebrate their 57th anniversary today at a banquet in Hotel Georgia.

The bombardment was in 1882, and today only four lower mainland veterans live—Jerry Emson, 81; Fred Waters, 79; Charlie Edwards, 77, all of Vancouver and Albert Green, 77, of Mission, B.C.

The freighter Hoperange arrived Sunday from Taku Bay under charter to Canadian-Australasian Line to load for Australian ports.

The vessel was tied up more than a month at Tientsin unloading cargo that should have taken 10 days, Captain A. J. Steele, reported on arrival.

Four other ships, bound for British Columbia, Janeta, Falsterbo, Dalmoor and Rugeley, were all held up there when Hoperange left, the captain said.

Japanese interest precede all others and the result has been that a great fleet of foreign ships have been delayed at Taku Bay, the captain stated.

The final, so that Steniewicz, Stiver, Harrison and Gregory have a chance to enter the final stage.

The tie shoot-off for first place in the St. George's final will take place tomorrow evening at the same time that Whitehead is shooting off with the two who tied him today for the bronze cups. These two are Sgt. C. W. Harvey, formerly of the Hertfordshire Yeomanry, and Warrant Officer A. R. Johnson of the Royal Signals Corps.

PLAZA THEATRE
Intimate details about the lives of a group of French working girls in a woman's hotel provide the background for "Club de Femmes," the newest foreign importation at the Plaza Theatre, with Danielle Darrieux starred.

The author and director, Jacques Deval, never allows the tempo of the picture to lag and keeps his elements of comedy, tragedy and drama well ordered, and well separated, so that no one vein detracts from another.

COLUMBIA THEATRE
Sonja Henie's newest triumph, "My Lucky Star," in which she co-stars with Richard Greene, one of the Movie Quiz $250,000 contest pictures, may be seen at the Columbia Theatre. Joan Davis, Cesar Romero and Buddy Ebsen are featured in the cast, which includes Arthur Treacher, George Barbier, Louise Hovick, Billy Gilbert, Patricia Wilder and Paul Hurst. Roy Del Ruth directed.

ATLAS THEATRE
Bette Davis' sister, Barbara, is probably the first person in all of Hollywood's history to be forced to work in a motion picture. The picture was "Dark Victory," now at the Atlas, and the reason that Barbara had to work in it was a dog. Daffy, her English setter, had been cast in the picture, and Daffy wouldn't take orders from anyone but his mistress.

OAK BAY THEATRE
Youth is the keynote of "Spring Madness," which is now at the Oak Bay Theatre, with Maureen O'Sullivan and Lew Ayres in the featured roles. There is not a principal in the cast of this production more than 29 years of age and the producer-director combination responsible for it is the youngest in Hollywood. The cast of the new picture includes, besides Miss O'Sullivan and Ayres, Ruth Hussey, Burgess Meredith, Ann Morris and Joyce Compton. S. Sylvan Simon is the director and Edward Chodorov the producer.

Young Lincoln Dominion Film

Henry Fonda Plays
Part of Youthful
Backwoods Lawyer

Don't look for the familiar Lincoln of history's pages when you go to the Dominion Theatre to see Darryl F. Zanuck's magnificent production of "Young Mr. Lincoln," which opened today with Henry Fonda in the title role. For this grand Cosmopolitan production for 20th Century-Fox is the story that has never been told of his eventful youth in the backwoods town of Springfield, Illinois.

Henry Fonda plays young Lincoln and turns in a performance that is truly great in its humor and understanding.

Others who score in the great cast are Alice Brady, as the mother of the accused boys, Marjorie Weaver as Mary Todd, Arleen Whelan, Eddie Collins, Pauline Moore as Ann Rutledge, Richard Cromwell, Donald Meek, Dorris Bowdon and Eddie Quilman.

Dunne, McMurray Stars at Capitol

"Invitation to Happiness," the Irene Dunne-Fred MacMurray starring vehicle, opening tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre, is the dramatic conflict between a prizefighter and his wife, who are both deeply in love with each other.

The Spartan regime of the ring prevents the fighter from living a full normal life. Most of the time he is away from home. And when the baby is born the father is miles away fighting.

The story of their lives forms an interesting vehicle for a cast of top-notch actors.

Orient Line Folds Up

Service From Seattle Is Doomed
Before One Ship Sails to Far East

SEATTLE (AP)—L. L. Bates, general manager of the Pacific Northwest Orient Line, announced last night an unfavorable vote by the Sailors' Union of the Pacific had doomed the projected United States flag ship line to the Orient before a ship had sailed on it.

He said he was advised by a Seattle official of the union that the labor group refused to accept a coastwise vote to yield in its hiring hall controversy with the U.S. Maritime Commission.

The commission served an ultimatum last week that the union would have to act before noon today to end the deadlock, or the projected service would be withdrawn.

Two ships, the Coldbrook and the Sataria, have been picked here several weeks since the controversy. The vessels came here to open the line. Two other ships were scheduled to come later from the east coast.

The dispute was over the maritime commission's demand that the crews be enlisted from U.S. Shipping Commission's list. The union stood adamant for hiring through the union hiring halls, for private vessels.

"On the basis of what information I have, the line is all folded up," Bates commented. "I was informed the Sailors' Union voted against the proposition all along the coast, and voted badly against it here. I was not informed on the nature of the ballot."

Union officials were not available for comment, and made no announcement of the vote outcome.

An end to the controversy has been sought in conference here and at Washington, D.C. President Roosevelt was brought into the dispute through conferences with the state's congressional delegation and maritime commissioners. Harry Lundeburg, secretary-treasurer of the S.U.P., came here from San Francisco to confer on the issue, but returned south without any apparent progress having been made.

The ultimatum of the maritime commission provided that the notice of termination of the contract for providing the ships for the Orient Line should be effective August 11, one month from the date of the vote.

On the upside the greater part of the day was U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, American Telephone, Santa Fe, Great Northern, Anaconda, Kenecott, Westinghouse, U.S. Gypsum, Owens-Illinois, U.S. Rubber, Douglas Aircraft, Western Union, Cluett Peabody, Loew's, Zenith Radio, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck and Air Reduction.

Hiram Walker, Dome and C.P.R. worked higher in the Canadian group while most others coasted along quietly. Some pressure developed against Dominion 48 in bonds.

PORTSMOUTH, England (CP)—The five-year-old, 7,800-ton cruiser Amphion was renamed H.M.A.S. Perth yesterday by the Duchess of Kent in a ceremony marking its transfer to the Australian Navy.

On behalf of the Commonwealth, High Commissioner Stanley Bruce presented a silver salver to the Duchess as a memento of the occasion.

"The Perth is part of Australia's effort to play her part in defence of the Empire," Mr. Bruce said.

"Australia wanted two cruisers. There was no time for them to be built, so it was arranged by the Admiralty that Australia should take over two ships of the Royal Navy, and that Great Britain should build two in their place."

"The cruiser will proceed to Australia via the Panama Canal, and will show the Australian flag in American waters. Australia has contributed to the British policy of resisting force and building up constructive peace. She is prepared to play her part in achieving it, whatever sacrifices may be involved."

The Duchess of Kent will leave in November for Australia with the Duke, who has been appointed Governor-General of that Dominion.

Far Recovery Push

NEW-YORK (AP)—With speculative eyes shifting from the cloudy foreign scene to encouraging business prospects at home, the stock market today put on a fair-sized recovery push.

Gains ran to more than a point for leaders in the forenoon when volume was about double that of the preceding sluggish session.

Transfers approximated 450,000 shares for the full proceedings or more than 150,000 above yesterday's turnover.

The thought of "no war in Europe," at least in the near future, seemed to have gained ground in the financial district.

The list got off to a good start and, in the morning, a number of issues managed to step into new high territory for the year.

Among these were Common wealth and Southern Preferred, Kroger Grocery, Bayuk Cigar and J. C. Penney.

Passengers from Vancouver and Seattle came here by regular steamer today to sail at 11 this evening by S.S. Maquinn for a cruise of the west coast of Vancouver Island.

At Prince Rupert tomorrow the ship will pick up members of the Alaska Road Commission, consisting of Hon. Charles Stewart, chairman; Arthur Dixon of Victoria, deputy Minister of Public Works; General T. L. Tremblay, Quebec commissioner; J. W. Spencer of Victoria; J. M. Wardle of Ottawa; J. J. Burpee, secretary of the commission, and Mrs. J. L. Montgomery, secretary to Mr. Stewart.

Wheat

WINNIPEG (CP)—Improved export demand for Canadian wheat, together with a firmer tone on outside markets and a let-up in recent selling pressure, held wheat futures price steady on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today.

Early gains of more than a cent were erased in the final minutes, and at the close quotations were 1/2 cent higher to unchanged, with July at 54 1/2, October 55 to 55 1/2, November 57 1/2 and December 57 1/2 cents.

Export sales were estimated as high as 1,000,000 bushels for the day. The business included a full cargo of durum sold to Germany as well as substantial quantities taken by United Kingdom buyers.

Most of the buying in the pit was credited to seaboard interests although continental houses made good purchases.

Liverpool climbed 1/2 d on a modest inquiry for Canadian wheat and a bearish interpretation of the United States government report on spring wheat conditions in that country. Chicago advanced nearly a cent, while Buenos Aires held unchanged.
